MEDIA INFORMATION

Coach Washington's Availability

All interview requests for head coach Coquese Washington should be directed to Chelsea Vielhauer (cpv5026@psu.edu) in the Strategic Communications Office.

Coach Washington will hold weekly press conferences during the season. A schedule is available by contacting the Strategic Communications Office.

Coach Washington will not be available on game day prior to tip-off. Postgame press conferences will be held after each game, home and away.

Student-Athlete Interviews

All student-athlete interviews must be arranged through Chelsea Vielhauer in the Strategic Communications office at least one week in advance. Student-athletes will be available on a weekly basis throughout the season, in conjunction with head coach Coquese Washington's weekly press conference. Interviews will not be granted on game day prior to tip-off.

Student-athletes will return phone calls only upon clearance with the Strategic Communications Office. They may also be scheduled for one-on-one interviews in person. Student-athlete phone numbers will not be released.

Following games, requested Penn State student-athletes will be brought to the postgame media interview room. The Penn State locker room is closed.

Credentials

Single game and season press credentials are issued to accredited members of the working media only. Requests for credentials should be directed to Chelsea Vielhauer. Please submit requests for game credentials at least one week in advance of each game. Press credentials can be picked up at Media Will Call, which is located at the Media/Team entrance, on the south side of the Bryce Jordan Center, across from the Panzer Lacrosse Stadium.

Penn State is a member of the Big Ten Conference and all press box and game day policies will conform to Big Ten guidelines.

Media Parking

Parking is available in the Bryce Jordan Center media lot upon request. Please contact Chelsea Vielhauer in the Strategic Communications Office. The media lot is located on the South end of the building, across from the Panzer Lacrosse Stadium. Additional parking is available in the public lots.

Photographers

A photo pass must be issued to gain courtside access at the Bryce Jordan Center. Please contact Chelsea Vielhauer, one week in advance for photo passes.

Courtside photographers must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas and stands. Photographers must remain seated at all times.

Radio Networks

The Penn State Sports Network originates from the first row of Booth C23 in the press area. Visiting stations are provided one phone line, an Ethernet connection and one ISDN line, and are located on the first row of Booth C22 in the press area.

Press Row Seating

To access the press seating area, turn left out of the media room, walk down the hallway and take the elevator to the Concourse level. Please allow several minutes when taking the elevator to press row or the media room.

When leaving the elevator, turn right. The press area is at Portal 23. Final statistics and a running play-by-play will be available in the media room following the game.

Game Notes

Game notes will be provided at least one day in advance of each game. Penn State, Big Ten and opposing team game notes will be available in the media suite two hours prior to each game. If you would like to receive game notes via email, please contact Chelsea Vielhauer in the Strategic Communications Office.

Website

The official Penn State Athletics website is: www.GoPSUsports.com. News updates, notes, statistics and general information on all 31 of Penn State's varsity sports are available on the site.

Penn State Sports Network

For the 15th consecutive season, the Penn State Sports Network, under the direction of Learfield and WRSC-AM in State College, will broadcast every Lady Lion Basketball game. The Penn State Sports Network is syndicated by Penn State Sports Properties, a property of Learfield, one of the country's largest syndicates of college sports.

2018-19 Lady Lions

Penn State's Experienced Core to Mix With Talented Youth

Head Coach Coquese Washington returns a strong and experienced core of players that will look to mix with three talented freshmen for the 2018-19 season. With no seniors on last year's roster, the Lady Lions return 10 letterwinners from the 2017-18 campaign. The 2018-19 roster features a balanced mix of five seniors, one redshirt-junior, two true juniors, three sophomores and three freshmen.

Penn State brings back four of its top five scorers and six of its top seven from a season ago, led by senior three-time All-Big Ten selection and 2017 honorable-mention All-American Teniya Page. Page, who has amassed 1,589 career points, looks to become the sixth Lady Lion to reach the 2,000-point milestone during her final campaign in the Blue and White.

Amari Carter and Jaida Travascio-Green will once again play key roles in 2018-19 after averaging 14.2 and 11.2 points per game, respectively, last season. Siyeh Frazier, the team's 2017-18 defensive MVP, will also be a key cog in Washington's lineup.

The sophomore class of Alisia Smith, Kamaria McDaniel and Sam Breen combined to play over 1,100 minutes a season ago and will carry that valuable experience into their second seasons.

Penn State adds three highly-touted rookies to the 2018-19 field in Lauren Ebo, Karisma Ortiz and Bexley Wallace.

The Big 200

Head Coach Coquese Washington Enters Season With 197 Wins

Head Coach Coquese Washington enters her 12th season at the helm needing just three wins to reach the 200-victory mark for her career.

Over her 11 seasons on the Penn State sidelines, Washington has enjoyed three Big Ten regular-season championships and seven national postseason appearances, including four NCAA Tournament berths.

Hola España!

Lady Lions Spent 10 Day in Spain in August 2018

Penn State enjoyed a once in a lifetime experience this summer when the Lady Lions embarked on a 10-day tour of Spain. It marked the first foreign tour for the Lady Lions since a 2012 trip to Italy and France.

Penn State spent time in the famous cities of Madrid, Valencia and Barcelona, while also playing three exhibition games against foreign competition. The Lady Lions went 2-1 on the trip with wins over CD CREF Madrid (108-81) and the Valencia All-Stars (87-80) and a narrow 76-60 loss to reigning Slovenian/Adriatic League Champion ZKK Cinkarna Celje.

In addition to the valuable team bonding experience overseas, the Lady Lions were also granted 10 practices leading up to the trip per NCAA rules. The extra game and practice experience should prove crucial as Penn State gears up for the 2018-19 campaign.

Teniya Page

Among The NCAA's Elite

936 all-time wins and 25 NCAA Tournament Appearances

The Lady Lions have collected 936 wins since the program's inception in 1965, an all-time win mark that ranks as the 18th-most in NCAA history. Penn State is one of only 16 schools with at least 25 NCAA Tournament appearances, joining Connecticut, Georgia, Iowa, Louisiana Tech, LSU, Maryland, North Carolina, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Old Dominion, Purdue, Stanford, Tennessee, Texas and Vanderbilt.

Teniya Continues To Climb

Senior guard in reach of 2,000-point milestone

Teniya Page has proven to be one of the strongest guards in the Big Ten from the day she stepped on campus. The guard has collected All-Big Ten accolades in each of her first three years, earning first team honors as both a sophomore and junior. Page was named a WBCA All-America honorable mention selection in 2016-17 following her standout sophomore campaign.

Page enters the 2018-19 season with 1,589 career points, putting her just 411 points away from hitting the 2,000-point mark. She would become the sixth Lady Lion to reach the milestone if she hits the 2,000-point mark. With 29 regular-season games scheduled and at least one postseason contest guaranteed (Big Ten Tournament), Page will need to average 13.7 points per game to reach the milestone. She averaged 15.3 points per game as a freshman, 19.9 as a sophomore and 18.4 as a junior.

The standout has already etched her names into several of Penn State's record books. Her 17.9 points per game career scoring average ranks No. 4 all-time. She is one of five Penn Staters with 1,500 career points and 300 career assists. Page owns seven career 30-point games to sit tied for No. 2 all-time at Penn State with Maggie Lucas (7; 2011-14). She's averaged 35.4 minutes per game throughout her career, a mark that ranks second in the Lady Lion history books.

Carter Does It All

Guard eyeing 1,000-point club in 2018-19

Redshirt junior Amari Carter has shown that she can do it all. The guard led the Big Ten with 2.63 steals per game a season ago, in addition to her team-best 116 assists and a 14.2 points per game average that ranked second on the team. Her 2.11 assist-to-turnover ratio ranked sixth in the Big Ten and 61st nationally.

Carter enters the 2018-19 campaign with 708 career points, putting her 292 points away from becoming the 39th member of the Lady Lions' 1,000-point club. Carter redshirted during her first season on campus before averaging 7.9 points per game as a redshirt-freshman and 14.2 points per contest as a redshirt-sophomore.

Rookies Ready To Roar

Freshman class looks to make an immediate impact

Accumulation of talented people is paramount to any organization, and that is a motto that head coach Coquese Washington builds her teams around. The additions of Lauren Ebo (Washington, D.C.), Karisma Ortiz (San Jose, Calif.) and Bexley Wallace (Pickerington, Ohio) to the 2018-19 roster fit that model and each of them should have an impact for the Lady Lions on and off the court.

Ortiz hails from Archbishop Mitty High School, which ranked as the No. 1 team in the nation by USA Today at the end of her senior year. The six-foot guard was ranked as the No. 54 prospect nationally by ESPN.com.

Ebo and Wallace will add strong size to the post group, coming in at six-foot-four and six-foot-three, respectively. Ebo led her Riverdale Baptist team to an Independent School National Championship and Title IX Pat Summitt Division title as a senior.

Wallace, who comes to Happy Valley from a suburb of Columbus, Ohio, guided Pickerington Central to a Division I State Championship as a senior and was also a part of the USA Basketball 16U squad that captured the bronze medal at the 2015 FIBA Championship. Wallace was ranked as the No. 91 prospect nationally and No. 16 forward in her class by Prospect Nation.

Lisa Salters

Lady Lions On The Biggest StageThree Penn State Alum Help WNBA Teams to 2018 Playoffs

Three former Lady Lions suited up in the 2018 WNBA playoffs as Penn State's power was felt on the sport's biggest stage.

Alex Bentley '13 averaged 15.6 points per game in the WNBA Semifinals as her second-seeded Atlanta Dream team dropped a tight 3-2 series to the Washington Mystics.

WNBA veteran Tanisha Wright '05 suited up for the Minnesota Lynx in their first-round action at the Los Angeles Sparks. Maggie Lucas '14 joined the Dallas Wings for the team's first-round playoff game at Phoenix.

Under head coach Coquese Washington, Penn State has seen four pupils drafted – Bentley, Tyra Grant, Nikki Greene and Lucas – and three more sign free agent contracts – Ariel Edwards, Kam Gissendanner and Zhaque Gray.

Overall, Penn State has seen 15 Lady Lions selected in the WNBA Draft, including seven picked in the first 20 selections of the event. Wright and Kelly Mazzante have each achieved the ultimate goal of winning a WNBA championship, with Mazzante winning a pair of titles in Phoenix and Wright claiming a title in Seattle.

Grand MarshalAlum Lisa Salters Serves as 2018 Homecoming Grand Marshal

One of the Lady Lions' most famous alumna returned to campus this fall as Lisa Salters served as the 2018 Penn State Homecoming Grand Marshal. Salters is a sideline reporter for two of ESPN's biggest sports properties – the NFL's Monday Night Football and NBA games on ESPN and ABC – and a featured correspondent for the company's award-winning E:60 newsmagazine.

Salters was a guard for the Lady Lions from 1986-87 and earned her bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Penn State in 1988.

A Penn State alum is selected as the Homecoming Grand Marshal each year. Selected Grand Marshals are those alum that embodied the values and mission of Penn State during his or her time at PSU and continue that dedication beyond graduation, making notable achievements in his or her field and demonstrating what it truly means to be a Penn Stater.

B1G HighlightsPenn State owns a winning record against 10 of 13 teams

Penn State enters its 27th season as a member of the Big Ten Conference in 2018-19 and has enjoyed immense success since becoming a member of the storied conference in 1992-93.

The Lady Lions own an all-time mark of 268-162 in Big Ten play, with marks of 160-56 at home and 108-106 on the road.

Penn State's eight regular-season championships since 1993-94 are tied for the most won by any Big Ten team during that span. Ohio State has also won eight regular-season titles during that span. The Lady Lions also own a pair of Big Ten Tournament titles, winning in 1995 and 1996.

ORIGINAL COLORS

PENN STATE'S STUDENT-ATHLETES ARE INSTANTLY IDENTIFIED BY THEIR BLUE & WHITE UNIFORMS — BUT THOSE WEREN'T THE ORIGINAL SCHOOL COLORS.

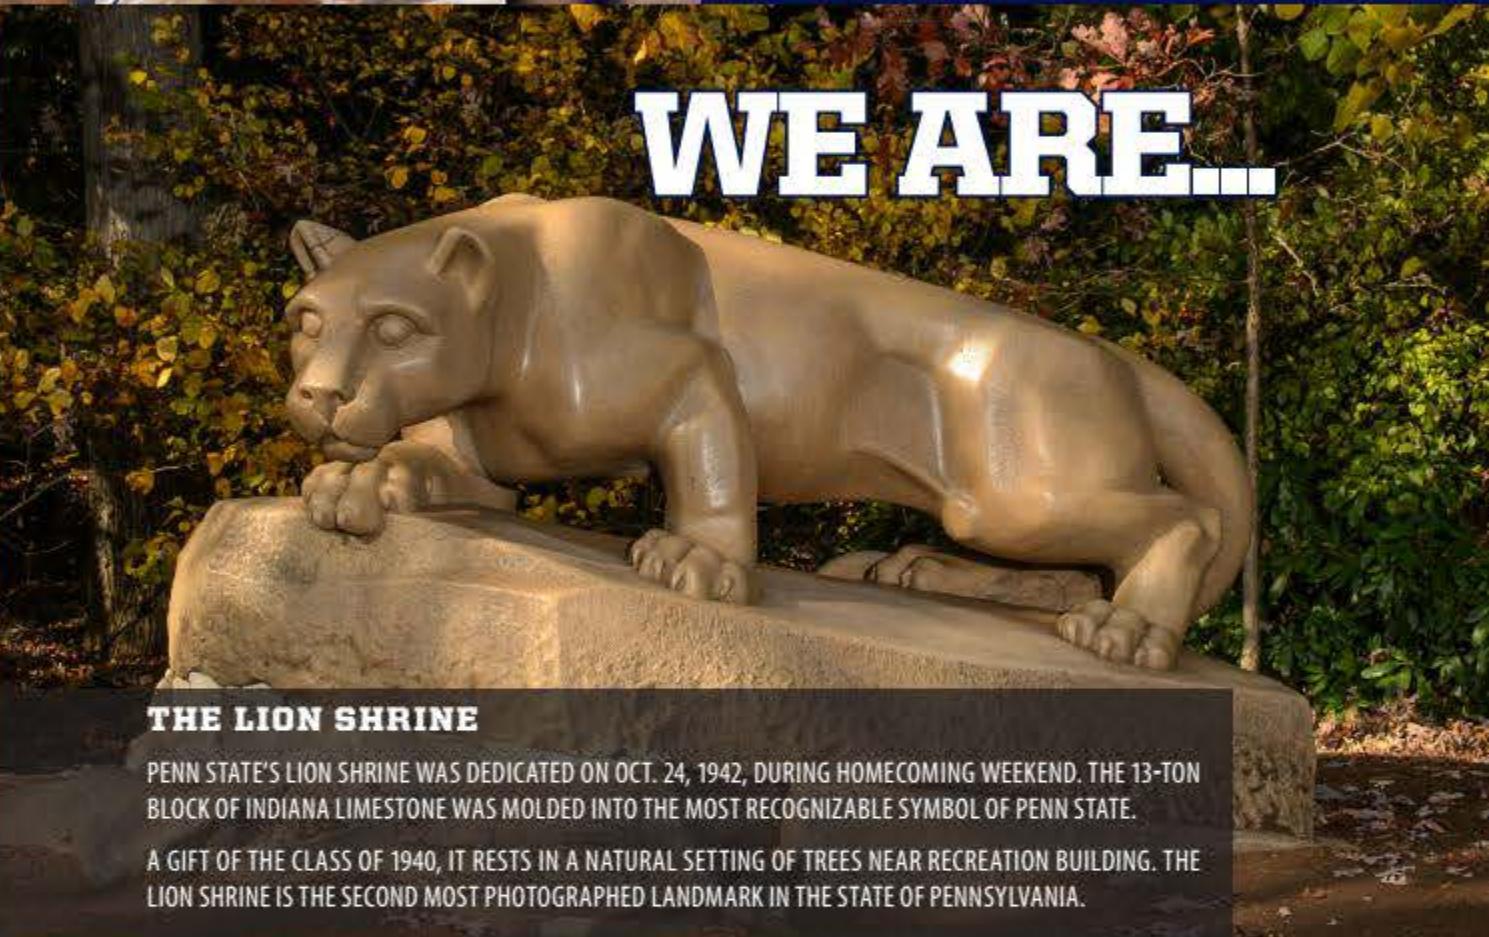

IN OCTOBER 1887, THE STUDENT BODY UNANIMOUSLY CHOSE DARK PINK & BLACK.

AFTER THE PINK FADED TO WHITE ON MANY OF THE UNIFORMS, THE STUDENTS OPTED FOR BLUE, RATHER THAN BLACK, AND WHITE AS THE OFFICIAL SCHOOL COLORS.

THE ICONIC BLUE & WHITE BECAME OFFICIAL ON MARCH 18, 1890.

LADY LIONS IN COACHING

FROM THE ICONIC BLUE AND WHITE TO THE LION SHRINE

NITTANY LION LEGEND

CHOSEN BY THE STUDENT BODY IN 1906, PENN STATE'S ORIGINAL ATHLETIC SYMBOL WAS THE MOUNTAIN LION WHICH ROAMED CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA. SINCE PENN STATE IS LOCATED IN THE NITTANY VALLEY AT THE FOOT OF MOUNT NITTANY, THE LION WAS DESIGNATED AS A NITTANY LION.

IN REGIONAL FOLKLORE, NITTANY (OR NITANEE) WAS A VALOROUS INDIAN PRINCESS IN WHOSE HONOR THE GREAT SPIRIT CAUSED MOUNT NITTANY TO BE FORMED.

COQUESE WASHINGTON

Head Coach • 12th Season
Flint, Mich.

B.A. in History • Notre Dame '92
Juris Doctorate • Notre Dame Law School '97

Upon arriving on the University Park campus as the fifth head coach in Penn State women's history - and first female African-American head coach in Penn State history - Coquese Washington quickly returned the program to national prominence with her up-tempo, aggressive style of play. Entering her 12th season on the sideline in Happy Valley, her passion for creating a winning culture, predicated on innovative coaching techniques, tireless recruiting, cultivating meaningful relationships with student-athletes and an unmatched enthusiasm for teaching the game she loves, Washington is in the conversation as one of the nation's top head coaches.

Washington has seen success at every level of basketball and in every role she has filled on the sidelines. She became the first player at Flint Central High School to earn a starting position all four seasons and helped her squad to the program's first Saginaw Valley League and district championships, while earning all-state honors on two occasions.

She went on to earn four varsity letters at the University of Notre Dame, leading the team in steals four times and assists on three occasions, before moving on to professional basketball where she was a member of the 2000 WNBA Champion Houston Comets squad.

On the sidelines, she has appeared in the postseason 15 times, with 12 of those being NCAA Tournament appearances. She helped the Lady Lions to four-straight berths in the NCAA Tournament - including a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances - and was an assistant coach on Notre Dame's 2001 NCAA National Championship team. Her three-straight Big Ten Championships make her one of just four coaches in Big Ten history with three-or-more consecutive Big Ten regular-season championships (Jim Foster, Ohio State; C. Vivian Stringer, Iowa & Tara VanDerveer, Stanford), taking home outright crowns in 2012 and 2013, while sharing the 2014 title.

Growing the Game

The professionals that are most successful often share one trait; they are thinkers, and Washington is no different. As a student-athlete at Notre Dame, Washington earned her degree in just three years. After her collegiate career was complete, Washington went on to earn her Juris Doctorate from her alma mater, while simultaneously playing in the professional ranks for the American Basketball League's (ABL) Portland Power. Her passion for learning is matched only by her love of family and basketball.

Washington is currently serving on the WBCA Board of Directors and held the role of President from 2015-17 with the organization that is tasked with solving issues, preserving the history and growing the game of women's basketball. She was also the Vice President/President-Elect from 2013-15.

Her service to the game also includes time with USA Basketball, the Kay Yow Cancer Fund and the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She won a gold medal with Team USA in Kazan, Russia at the 2013 World University Games and served on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Committee from 2009-12. Her work with the Kay Yow Cancer Fund Board of Directors ran from 2012-15 and she served five years on the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee.

Of her many accomplishments, Washington was the founding President of the WNBA Players Association in 1999 and was a primary force in negotiating the association's first two collective bargaining agreements.

Recruiting Premier Talent

The recruiting trail has always been a place of success for Washington, with the Lady Lions signing four top-25 recruiting classes - including three top-15 classes - since her arrival in Happy Valley. Her top-25 recruiting classes have included a pair of 14th-ranked classes (2009, 2013), one that sat at No. 15 (2015) and one that came in 22nd nationally (2010).

Prior to Washington's arrival, Penn State had only signed one McDonald's All-American in program history, but the seasoned recruiter has brought six to campus in her 11 years as head coach. Candice Agee (2012), Brianna Banks (2011), De'Janae Boykin (2015), Maggie Lucas (2010), Sierra Moore (2012) and Dara Taylor (2009) have all donned the McDonald's All-American uniform before matriculating to the University Park campus.

Led by the All-American duo of Indiana native Alex Bentley and Lone Star State product Nikki Greene, Washington's 2009 class also included all-state performers Gizelle Studevant (California) and Marissa Wolfe (Pennsylvania), along with transfer Mia Nickson (Virginia), who was a top-100 recruit coming out of high school in 2008. In 2010, Washington landed a pair of Pennsylvania's top players in shooting guard Maggie Lucas and forward Talia East, while the three-person class was boosted by New York wing and WBCA High School All-American Ariel Edwards.

In 2013, Washington and her staff inked a seven-person class that included four ESPN HoopGurlz Top-100 players, including the Georgia duo of Kaliyah Mitchell and Peyton Whitted, and Maryland guard Lindsey Spann. The 2013 class was also bolstered by the addition of Duke transfer Sierra Moore, who was a McDonald's All-American in the class of 2012.

A pair of five-star guards in Chicago native Teniya Page and Maryland product Amari Carter led the way for the class of 2015. Adding to a strong recruiting haul was the highly recruited post pair of Kentucky's Ashanti Thomas and Boston-area product Jaylen Williams.

Washington came to Happy Valley after eight seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach under Muffet McGraw at Notre Dame, her alma mater. One of the top recruiters in the country, Washington was instrumental in helping the Irish secure eight consecutive top-25 recruiting classes, a feat only accomplished by two other programs in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee).

WNBA: Pioneer and Pupils

A pioneer in advancing the WNBA both on and off the court, Washington continues to supply the league with top notch talent, sending six Penn Staters to play in the world's most competitive professional league.

Alex Bentley and Maggie Lucas are two of Washington's pupils that have seen success on the grand stage, with Bentley playing in the WNBA Finals as a rookie and earning WNBA All-Star status in 2015. Lucas also competed in the WNBA Finals, helping the Indiana Fever to the WNBA Championship series against the Minnesota Lynx during the 2015 season.

In 2014, Lucas was selected with the 21st overall pick (second round) by the Phoenix Mercury, then was traded to the Indiana Fever during training camp. In her third year as a professional, Lucas saw her court time increase each season, before suffering a season-ending injury in the fourth game of the 2016 campaign, an injury that ultimately sidelined her in 2017, as well. Lucas returned to the WNBA playoffs in 2018 as a member of the Dallas Wings. Also in 2014, Ariel Edwards inked a free agent contract with the Tulsa Shock.

COACHES & STAFF

In 2013, for the third time in program history, the Lady Lion program saw a pair of student-athletes selected in the WNBA Draft. Bentley went 13th overall to the Atlanta Dream and Nikki Greene was selected 26th overall by the Phoenix Mercury. Bentley helped the Atlanta Dream to the 2018 WNBA Semifinals. She returned to the Dream after playing four-plus seasons with the Connecticut Sun and a previous one-year stint with the Atlanta Dream. A WNBA All-Rookie selection in 2013, she was among the MVP candidates in 2015 before missing the final nine games of the season with an injury.

Greene played two years in the league, suiting up for the Los Angeles Sparks in 2014 before teaming up with Bentley in Connecticut during the 2015 season.

Tyra Grant capped off her Penn State career by being selected by the Phoenix Mercury in the second round of the 2010 WNBA Draft, and Washington was also instrumental in helping Kam Gissendanner sign a free agent contract with the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks following in the 2008 campaign. Edwards and Zhaque Gray have also signed free agent contracts with WNBA teams, inking deals with the Tulsa Shock and Chicago Sky, respectively, in 2014.

During her time at Notre Dame, Washington saw seven players earn roster spots on WNBA teams.

Dancing Shoes

In 19 years as a collegiate coach, Washington has laced up her dancing shoes and headed to the postseason on 15 occasions, including 12 trips to the NCAA Tournament. While coaching the Blue and White, Washington has guided the program to four NCAA Tournament berths and three appearances in the WNIT.

From 2011-14, the Lady Lions advanced to the NCAA Tournament each season, reaching at least the second round on all four occasions. The 2012 and 2014 squads moved on to the Sweet Sixteen with a pair of postseason wins, before falling to top-five ranked opponents.

The 2017-18 and 2016-17 squads made a pair of WNIT appearances, with the 16-17 squad advancing to the third round.

In their fourth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance, the 2014 squad hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament inside the Bryce Jordan Center for the 14th time in school history. Wins over Wichita State in the opening round and a 22-point rout of Florida in the second round sent the program to its 13th Sweet Sixteen. A date with No. 5/6 Stanford awaited in Palo Alto, as the No. 3 seed Lady Lions fell to the No. 2 seed Cardinal at Maples Pavilion to close out a 24-8 campaign, which included a Big Ten regular-season title.

In 2013, Penn State again advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a win over Cal Poly in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The 26-6 campaign ended with a loss to LSU on their home court. The Lady Lions advanced to the 2012 Sweet Sixteen with wins over UTEP and LSU in Baton Rouge before falling to No. 3/3 Connecticut en route to a 26-7 overall record.

The Lady Lions worked their way back to the "Big Dance" for the first time since 2004-05 and advanced to the second round for the first time in seven years with a win over Dayton in the first round of the 2012 NCAA Tournament in front of a raucous Bryce Jordan Center crowd. Washington's first appearance in the tournament as a head coach started with a 75-66 win over Dayton.

Washington's first taste of postseason play as a head coach came against Hofstra in the 2010 WNIT. The Lady Lions hosted the contest on the University Park campus, but the Pride got the best of a young Lady Lions squad in the opening round.

During Washington's eight years on the bench, Notre Dame reached the NCAA Tournament each season, including four Sweet Sixteen runs and the 2001 National Championship.

Trophies & All-Americans

Washington's competitive side shines brightest on the biggest stages and that is a trait that her teams have taken on during her tenure on the University Park campus, as well. Washington's teams have advanced out of the first round of the NCAA Tournament in all four of trips, while earning berths in the Sweet Sixteen twice.

From 2012-14, the Lady Lions claimed three-straight Big Ten regular-season titles, making them one of just four teams in conference history to win three-or-more regular season crowns in a row. Washington's squads took the title outright in 2012 and 2013, while sharing the crown in 2014.

Washington is a three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year (2012, 2013 & 2014), a two-time WBCA Region Six Coach of the Year (2012 & 2013) and two-time finalist for WBCA National Coach of the Year (2012 & 2013). She was also selected as the 2011 and 2014 Black Coaches Association (BCA) Female Coach of the Year.

On the national awards front, Washington's players have earned a host of national honors from All-America laurels to honors for community service and selflessness. Teniya Page joined the list of Washington pupils to earn national honors after her standout sophomore campaign. The Chicago, Illinois native became just the second Penn Stater to earn WBCA All-America laurels as a sophomore (Kelly Mazzante). Page looks to become the sixth-ever Lady Lion to reach the 2,000-career point milestone during the 2018-19 season.

Maggie Lucas finished her Penn State career as one of the most decorated student-athletes to pass through the Lady Lion program. Lucas was a two-time finalist for the Wade Trophy and Wooden Award, while earning nine All-American honors, including first team honors from the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) in 2013 and 2014. She was a three-time AP All-American, garnering second team (2013), third team (2014) and honorable mention (2012) accolades during her career.

Alex Bentley was a two-time All-American, earning AP honorable mention laurels in 2013, and WBCA naming her honorable-mention All-American in 2012 and 2013. One of the toughest defenders in the nation and a scoring threat from anywhere on the court, Bentley was the 2013 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award winner as the nation's top player under 5-foot-8.

Bentley and Lucas were both named to Freshman All-America teams during their rookie seasons of 2010 and 2011, respectively, while Tyra Grant was Washington's first All-American, garnering honorable mention honors in 2010 from the Associated Press.

On-court accolades are not the only ones celebrated by the Lady Lion program, with Gizelle Studevent and Maggie Lucas each earning national attention for their off-court undertakings. Studevent was a member of the 2013 Allstate WBCA Good Works Team, honoring student-athletes that have made outstanding contributions in the areas of volunteerism and civic involvement. Studevent was the lifeblood and founder of the anti-bullying program Penn State Athletes Take Action (PSATA). Earning a selection to the 2014 Senior CLASS Award All-American Team, Lucas was one of 10 women's basketball student-athletes to be celebrated for the award that is an acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School.

During her tenure at Notre Dame, Washington coached five All-Americans in her role as the guards coach, and was directly responsible for developing three All-Americans and two Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award winners: Niele Ivey and Megan Duffy. Washington also worked with Alicia Ratay, who is the NCAA's career 3-point field goal percentage leader.

Big Things Happening

In 11 seasons on the sideline, Washington has seen 17 players earn All-Big Ten laurels on 30 occasions, along with three each earning Big Ten All-Freshman Team and Big Ten All-Defensive Team honors. Among the All-Big Ten honorees, five of Washington's pupils account for 11 first team selections and Penn State has seen multiple players earn all-conference in 10 of her 11 seasons on the sideline.

Earning Big Ten Player of the Year on two occasions (2013 & 2014), Maggie Lucas was also the 2011 Big Ten Freshman and Sixth Player of the Year. Lucas joins Alex Bentley as three-time All-Big Ten first team selections under Washington. Teniya Page became just the fourth Lady Lion to earn consensus All-Big Ten first team as a sophomore in 2016-17, while Tyra Grant (2009 & 2010) and Ariel Edwards (2014) round out the group of first teamers.

Dara Taylor became the first Lady Lion under Washington to win the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, claiming the award in 2014, while also getting the nod to the All-Defensive Team in 2013. Bentley was also a two-time Big Ten All-Defensive Team choice (2012 & 2013), while Nikki Greene earned her selection to the squad for her shot blocking prowess in 2011.

COACHES & STAFF

In 2016, Penn State placed three players on the All-Big Ten team, highlighted by Page's selection to the All-Big Ten second team as a true freshman. Her second team selection made her just the third Penn State rookie to earn either first or second team honors at season's end, joining Lucas (2nd team; 2011) and Kelly Mazzante (1st team; 2001). Adding to the haul of all-conference honors were Brianna Banks and Lindsey Spann, each earning honorable mention selections.

During Washington's first Big Ten Championship run in 2012, her squad put five players on the All-Big Ten squad. Bentley and Lucas each earned first team honors that season, and Greene, Zhaque Gray and Mia Nickson all noted honorable mention accolades. Both the 2011 and 2014 teams placed four players on the All-B1G squads, with the 2016 team joining the 2008 and 2013 teams that each had three representatives.

Washington is a stout believer in getting her best players on the floor regardless of position or class, with three student-athletes earning a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman squad. Bentley (2010) and Page (2016) were both unanimous all-rookie picks, and Lucas secured a spot on the 2011 list.

The success of her student-athletes isn't confined to the hardwood, as the Lady Lion program has 50 Academic All-Big Ten honorees over her 11 seasons. The 2015 squad set a school record with seven honorees on the list, while her 2009 and 2013 teams each saw six honorees for academic success. The 2016 team had a school-record three student-athletes named Big Ten Distinguished Scholars, awarded to Big Ten student-athletes with a minimum GPA of 3.7 or higher for the previous academic year. Sarah McMurtry, Kaliyah Mitchell and Spann all earned the honor, giving Penn State the most representatives of any Big Ten women's basketball program in 2016-17.

Play to Your Strengths

Washington's style of play lends itself to being up-tempo and high scoring, which has enabled the program to rise to new heights and return to the national spotlight. As a member of the Big Ten Conference, her teams are playing one of the toughest conference slates in the country, but that doesn't stop Washington from scheduling key non-conference games against the nation's best teams – home and on the road.

In each of Washington's first six years, Penn State improved its Big Ten win total and the Lady Lions posted three consecutive 25-win seasons, joining the 1993-94, 1994-95 and 1995-96 squads as the only teams in program history to accomplish the feat.

During Washington's first 11 seasons, Penn State has toppled ranked opponents in nine of those seasons; winning multiple games against ranked foes during eight of those campaigns. Her first season in Happy Valley included wins over No. 20 Pittsburgh and No. 10 Duke. The 2011-12 squad traveled to No. 16/13 Texas A&M for a top-20 showdown with the Aggies and walked away with 63-58 victory to snap a 58-game non-conference home court winning streak for TAMU.

The 2016 squad also had its share of success against ranked opponents, pushing No. 4 Tennessee to the brink in an early season road test, before opening the Big Ten schedule with a 79-72 victory over then-No. 14 Northwestern at the Bryce Jordan Center. Avenging an earlier loss to Michigan State, Penn State traveled to East Lansing and handed the then-No. 15 Spartans a 65-61 defeat in front of a national television audience on the Big Ten Network.

Inside the Bryce Jordan Center, the home crowd was delighted by a pair of top-25 victories on the way to a school-record-tying 16-2 overall home record. On Nov. 20, it started with a 70-56 victory over then-No. 13 Tennessee and continued with a thrilling triumph over No. 24 Michigan, 76-75, to cap the 11th annual Play4Kay game benefiting Pink Zone in front of 8,213 fans. The 2017-18 team took down a then No. 25/21 Rutgers, 70-67, last season.

The Penn State record books have also been invaded by Washington's teams and student-athletes.

Teniya Page was a catalyst on the court in 2015-16, as she was the only freshman in the NCAA to average at least 15 points and four assists per game. She became just the third rookie in Penn State history to reach the 400-point and 100-assist mark - and first since Suzie McConnell (1984-85).

Continuing her ascent into the national conversation in 2016-17, Page became the first Lady Lion to amass 200 made field goals, 60 made 3-pointers, 100 made free throws and 100 assists in a single season. She also became just the fourth Penn Stater to reach the 1,000-point mark prior to the end of her sophomore campaign, joining the group of Kelly Mazzante, Maggie Lucas and Susan Robinson – the top three scorers in Lady Lion history. After another stellar season as a junior, Page is in striking distance of becoming the sixth-ever Lady Lion to reach the 2,000-point milestone as a senior in 2018-19.

Lucas finished her career second in school history and fourth in Big Ten history in scoring (2,510) and broke the Penn State and Big Ten records for career 3-pointers made (365) and career free throw percentage (.907). Lucas left Penn State ranked among the top-five on 25 different single season or career charts.

Nikki Greene became the first player in school history to accumulate 1,000 points, 900 rebounds and 200 blocks, while Alex Bentley is one of only two players (Suzie McConnell) in program history with 1,500 points, 500 assists and 250 steals. Brianne O'Rourke closed out her career as an All-Big Ten performer and left Penn State as one of just six players in school history with 1,000 points and 500 assists.

On the team side of things, the 2013-14 graduating class of Lucas, Ariel Edwards, Dara Taylor and Talia East produced 101 wins, which are the second-most wins by a senior class in Lady Lion history.

The 2010-11 team was a dominating force from the perimeter as the Lady Lions tied the school record with 228 3-pointers and led the NCAA from deep with a .415 3-point field goal percentage. Beyond the arc was a place the 2016-17 team thrived, as well, sitting No. 3 in school history with 193 makes from long range. Washington's squad had three student-athletes top the 40-make mark from 3-point range, as Page (64), Lindsey Spann (41) and Jaida Travascio-Green (46) became the second trio in school history to all top the 40-make mark in a single season.

With just 13.0 turnovers per game during the 2016-17 season, Washington's squad set the school standard for taking care of the basketball. That average gives Washington-led teams five of the top 10 lowest turnovers per game marks in program history. To add to that, the 2016-17 squad equaled the school record for fewest turnovers in a game on three occasions, committing just six missteps vs. Wisconsin, Purdue and Fordham.

Double Domer

Washington was a four-year starting point guard for Notre Dame under McGraw and was the team captain on Notre Dame's first-ever NCAA Tournament team. She was a two-time All-Midwestern Collegiate Conference (MCC) selection and led the Irish to three MCC Tournament titles. Washington led the team in steals in each of her four seasons and was tops on the squad in assists three times. Washington is first on UND's all-time steals per game list (2.7), third in career steals (307) and sixth in assists (554).

The epitome of a student-athlete, Washington graduated from Notre Dame in 1992, a full year ahead of schedule, with a bachelor's degree in history. She went on to attain "Double Domer" status in 1997 after earning her Juris Doctorate from the Notre Dame Law School.

The Consummate Professional

Washington juggled finishing her law degree with the start of her professional basketball career, returning to the hardwood as a professional in 1997-98 with the ABL's Portland Power before spending a two-year stint with the WNBA's New York Liberty (1998-99) and playing in the WNBA Finals in 1999.

Moving to Houston in 2000, Washington played an instrumental role in leading the Comets to the WNBA title. Her solid season in 2001 with the Comets for Hall of Fame coach Van Chancellor, saw her finish ninth in the WNBA in assists and fourth in steals as Houston earned its fifth consecutive playoff berth. Washington's started the 2002 campaign in Houston before being traded to the Indiana Fever at the midway point of the season. Washington guided the Fever to their first-ever playoff berth, helping her become the first player in WNBA history to lead three different teams to the postseason. She retired from the WNBA in 2003 as a member of the Fever.

Utilizing her law degree, Washington was a central figure in helping create the WNBA Players Association (WNBPA), serving as the founding president of the WNBPA from 1999 until 2001. She also served as the Executive Vice President of the WNBPA from 2001 until her retirement in 2003. Washington led negotiations for the association's first collective bargaining agreement as the association's president, and as the executive vice president was a mainstay in the negotiations for the league's second collective bargaining agreement, which brought about the first free agency system in women's professional sports. A native of Flint, Michigan, Washington was inducted into the Greater Flint Area Sports Hall of Fame in December 2009.

COACHES & STAFF

Serving the Community

Be it on the hardwood, on the golf course, or out on a speaking engagement, Washington is among the most active Penn State coaches in the community. Her annual efforts include Coquese's Drive for the Centre County Women's Resource Center, championing the fight against breast cancer for the Penn State Play4Kay game and supporting her team during their many hours of giving back to the Centre region.

One of the first relationships that Washington established in State College was with the Executive Director of the Centre County Women's Resource Center (now called Centre SAFE), Ann Ard. The relationship grew quickly, with the focus shifting to helping the local non-profit find a way to raise funds and provide resources in the fight against domestic violence. In its 11 years, Coquese's Drive has raised more than $223,185 to benefit the CCWRC.

While the event has spread nationally, Penn State women's basketball was and continues to be a trend-setter in spreading awareness for breast cancer research as the first team in the country to wear pink uniforms. Washington has embraced Pink Zone at Penn State and helped it grow into an annual "can't miss" event for survivors and supporters alike. During her tenure, Washington has seen the program's Play4Kay game grow in both attendance numbers and funds raised. The 698 survivors at the 2014 game are the most in program history, while the $310,000 raised that year are a benchmark for years to come. Lady Lion basketball and Pink Zone have distributed more than $2 million since the partnership began in 2007.

Along with her community involvement, Washington has appointed Miriam Powell as the Director of Community Outreach for the Lady Lion program. Powell has been charged with creating powerful and impactful relationships for the women's basketball program within the Penn State and surrounding communities, through service and volunteerism. This role was created by Washington to make sure the Lady Lions are serving those who spend much of their own time supporting Lady Lion Basketball on the floor and in the classroom.

The Personal Side

Washington and her husband, Raynell Brown, have a son, Quenton (13), and a daughter, Rhaiyna (9). Raynell is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Penn State Law School and is a former partner at Hicks & Brown Sports Agency, where he represented athletes in the NFL, FIBA, NBA and WNBA. They reside in Port Matilda.

ITORO COLEMAN

Assistant Coach • Fifth Season (Eighth Overall)
B.A. in Speech and Communication • Clemson '00

Itoro (E-tore-uh) Coleman enters her eighth year with the Lady Lion program and works with the guards. In addition, Coleman plays a significant role in all recruiting efforts and opponent scouting, and also serves as the special situations coordinator. Her enthusiasm and passion for the game shines through on a coaching staff dedicated to growing well rounded student-athletes and preparing them for the ups and downs of college basketball.

Coleman was a member of Washington's initial Penn State staff and spent three seasons in Happy Valley before returning to her alma mater, Clemson, as head coach from 2010-13. She rejoined the Penn State staff prior to the 2014-15 season, as Penn State's recruiting coordinator and post coach. She immediately impacted the Lady Lions' national recruiting efforts, helping Penn State secure a top-25 recruiting class for the third time in her Penn State career.

Coleman spent the past two seasons coaching the Lady Lion wings. She helped mentor Amari Carter to second team All-B1G laurels in 2017-18, while developing Jaida Travascio-Green into one of the top 3-point threats in the conference. Coleman has also been instrumental in the development of Siyeh Frazier, who earned the team's Defensive MVP honor a season ago.

While coaching the post players during the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons, Coleman helped develop that unit into one of the most athletic corps in the Big Ten. The 2015-16 season saw the emergence of Peyton Whitted as one of the top rebounders in the conference. Whitted posted career bests in nearly every statistical category and recorded her first seven career double-doubles. During the 2014-15 season, Coleman turned both Candice Agee and Whitted into reliable competitors, helping the duo to an uptick in both scoring average and rebounding.

During her first stint at Penn State, Coleman served as the recruiting coordinator and guards coach. She was instrumental in the recruitment of the 2009 class, which ranked 14th by ESPN/HoopGurlz and the 2010 class, which sat 22nd in the rankings. Those classes featured All-Big Ten performers and future WNBA players Alex Bentley, Nikki Greene and Maggie Lucas, along with all-conference pick Ariel Edwards. During the 2009-10 season, Coleman guided Bentley to Big Ten All-Freshman team accolades, as well as All-Big Ten third team honors. Bentley also garnered Full Court Press Freshman All-America third team accolades during her rookie campaign.

Additionally, Coleman led All-Big Ten performer Brianne O'Rourke to an honorable mention berth in 2008-09. O'Rourke was one of six players in school history to accumulate 1,000 points and 500 assists in her career.

In her first season at Penn State, Coleman was instrumental in the development of O'Rourke and Mashea Williams. The duo each registered career-high performances in the upset win over 10th-ranked Duke. The pair also combined to outscore the entire Michigan State team in the second half (24-21) in a key road win for the Lady Lions on national television. Coleman also guided O'Rourke to All-Big Ten third team honors as she led the conference and was 51st nationally in assists in 2007-08.

COACHES & STAFF

"Itoro is an outstanding coach in all areas and I am fortunate to have her on staff. Her infectious energy, enthusiasm and competitive fire is outstanding and rubs off on everyone in the program. She has competed with success as a collegiate athlete, WNBA player and Olympian, and that background has helped her become an incredible teacher of the game. She is passionate about impacting the lives of our players and gives tirelessly of herself on and off the court. Our program is fortunate to have her on the sidelines working with our guards."

- COQUESE WASHINGTON

On the recruiting trail, Coleman has been able to spearhead the efforts of four top-25 classes, including three at Penn State. The 2015 class finished as the No. 15 class in the country according to ESPN.com/HoopGurlz and featured a pair of five-star guards in Amari Carter and Teniya Page. The class featured players from four different states, Page (Illinois) and Carter (Washington D.C.), along with a pair of highly touted post players, Ashanti Thomas (Kentucky) and Jaylen Williams (Massachusetts).

While at the helm of Tigers, Coleman recruited a pair of top-30 classes, including signing the No. 14 player in the country in the 2012 class. In 2012, the Tigers broke the school record for blocked shots with 168 rejections, which was fourth nationally. Coleman and the Tigers topped No. 21 North Carolina, 52-47, in 2012 to give Clemson its first win over a nationally ranked team in eight years.

Also serving as an assistant coach for the Tigers during her career, Coleman developed two All-ACC guards in Chrissy Floyd and Lakeia Stokes. The pair also earned WBCA Regional All-America accolades. Coleman also helped Clemson secure its first nationally-ranked recruiting class in 2003-04.

Coleman garnered the commitment and signing of South Carolina's Player of the Year, LeLe Hardy, who went on to earn All-ACC Rookie team honors, as well as All-America accolades in 2006-07. Hardy led the ACC and was fifth in the NCAA in assists in 2006-07. Coleman was also responsible for recruiting Christy Brown, an ACC All-Rookie team selection, and D'Lesha Lloyd and Tasha Taylor, who were Clemson's top-two scorers in 2006-07.

Prior to her time at Clemson, Coleman served as an assistant coach at Butler from 2000-02 and had a stint as a student assistant coach at Liberty University for the 1999-2000 season.

As a player for Clemson, Coleman garnered WBCA District II All-America accolades, defensive All-America honors and was named an honorable mention Associated Press All-America in her senior season. Coleman – a three-time All-ACC performer – led Clemson to ACC Tournament championships in 1996 and 1999, claiming Tournament MVP honors in 1999. She ranks in the Top 10 in Tiger history with 1,409 points, 459 assists and 265 steals. Coleman was also selected to the ACC's 50-year Anniversary Team in 2002 and to the Silver Anniversary team that recognized the top players in ACC Tournament history.

Coleman was inducted into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2008 along with her former head coach Jim Davis and six other Tiger standouts.

Coleman continued her career after college in the WNBA, playing for the Indiana Fever in 2001 and the Houston Comets in 2003. She also participated in the Pan Am Games for Team USA, as well as several appearances in international competition as a member of the Nigerian National Team, including the 2006 FIBA World Championships where she led the world tournament in assists. Coleman accounted for 15 points with four 3-pointers against the Team USA juggernaut at the FIBA World Championships. Coleman also played in the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens, Greece where she captained the Nigerian National Team to its first-ever Olympic win.

Coleman earned her bachelor's degree in speech and communication from Clemson in 2000. She and her husband, Harold, have three daughters, Jada (14), Jordyn (9), Jasmine (8), and one son, Harold (Dutch) III (6).

"I am very excited to be working at Penn State with the Lady Lion program and with Coquese Washington. She is a visionary and a servant leader who inspires and challenges me to be great on a daily basis. My family and I love Happy Valley and that's a direct reflection of who we are surrounded by."

TAMIKA JETER

Assistant Coach • Third Season
B.A. in Interpersonal Communication • Connecticut

A two-time National Champion and a seven-year veteran of the WNBA, Tamika Jeter (jet-ur) begins her third season as a member of the Lady Lion program and her 12th overall as a collegiate coach. Jeter coaches the Lady Lion post players, taking a leading role in opponent scouting, assisting in all aspects of recruiting, and serving as offensive strategist.

In her first two seasons on the University Park campus, Jeter has helped the Lady Lions to 37 wins and a pair of national postseason tournament appearances. Jeter developed rookie Alisia Smith to a team-best shooting percentage (.556) during the 2017-18 season, while also mentoring De'Janae Boykin to a squad-high 7.6 rebounds per game.

In 2016-17, her post unit improved its accuracy around the basket, raising its 2-point shooting percentage from .481 to nearly .500, connecting on 249-of-441 shots from inside the arc for a .497 clip.

With Jeter's guidance, Kaliyah Mitchell capped her career with honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades, averaging 7.2 points and a team-best 5.8 rebounds per game. Mitchell led the team in steals (38) and blocked a team- and career-best 24 shots on the year.

The former Tamika Williams began her collegiate coaching career while still playing professionally and landed in Happy Valley with a decade of experience on the sideline, including six seasons at Ohio State (2003-08), two at Kansas (2009-10) and two at Kentucky (2015-16), all as an assistant coach.

In her 12 years on the bench, Jeter has never missed the postseason, including a WNIT third round appearance in 2016-17 with the Lady Lions. Her resume includes helping the Buckeyes to six-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, aiding the Wildcats to a pair of NCAA berths, and assisting the Jayhawks to two WNIT appearances, including the 2009 WNIT championship game.

Jeter's impact on the University of Kentucky program was felt during her two seasons in the Bluegrass State. During her time in Lexington, the Wildcats finished in the AP Top 25 twice, reached the NCAA Tournament both seasons and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2016. Jeter helped mold Linnae Harper, Maci Morris and Jenn O'Neill into all-conference performers. Harper garnered SEC All-Defensive Team honors in 2015, while Morris was a SEC All-Freshman Team pick in 2016, starting every game for the Wildcats and averaging 8.6 points per game.

O'Neill thrived under Jeter's watch, averaging 14.0 points per game in 2014-15 to lead the team. She earned SEC 6th Woman of the Year – becoming the only player in SEC history to win the honor twice – and was a second-team All-SEC pick by the coaches and an honorable-mention All-SEC selection by the Associated Press. She became the 30th member of the UK 1,000-point club, ending her career ranked No. 12 on the Wildcats career scoring charts.

During her time in Lawrence, Kansas, Jeter tutored Krysten Boogaard and Carolyn Davis to All-Big XII honors, with both student-athletes ending their careers as members of the KU 1,000-point club. Boogaard enjoyed two solid seasons at center for the Jayhawks. In her career, she swatted 105 shots, secured 584 rebounds and tallied 1,051 points.

Davis excelled under the guidance of Jeter, earning 2010 Big XII All-Rookie honors. The foundation laid during her rookie season helped Davis to a breakout sophomore season, when she ranked second nationally in field goal percentage (.660), while averaging 19.0 points and 7.4 rebounds per game.

In six seasons at Ohio State, Jeter helped the Buckeyes program return to prominence. She spent one season as a graduate assistant (2002-03) before moving into a full time role from 2004-08. The Buckeyes made six-straight trips to the NCAA Tournament, won four consecutive Big Ten Championships and Jeter saw four of her student-athletes selected in the WNBA Draft - Courtney Coleman (2003), Jessica Davenport (2007), Jantel Lavender (2011) and Debbie Merrill (2006).

Among her pupils in Columbus, Davenport became the only three-time unanimous Big Ten Player of the Year selection (2005, 2006, 2007) and was the Buckeyes first three-time All-American honoree. She ended her career at Ohio State having amassed 2,303 points, 1,094 rebounds and 384 blocks – the first Big Ten player to reach 2,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 300 blocks in a career. Davenport also ended her career as the top shooter in school history, connecting on 60.4 percent of her shots from the field.

"Tamika has established herself as one of the premier post coaches in the country. She is an energetic, experienced teacher, and has a great feel for how to develop post players. She excelled as a player on every level – high school, college and in the WNBA – so she understands exactly what it takes to dominate in the post. More importantly, Tamika builds really strong personal relationships with our players, allowing her to get their maximum effort on the court and be an influential role model off it. Under Tamika's guidance, our post play will be among the best in the country."

- COQUESE WASHINGTON

Remarkably, Lavender one-upped Davenport by earning Big Ten Player of the Year honors all four seasons, winning the award outright in 2009 and 2010, while earning Co-Player of the Year honors in 2008 and 2011. She was the first Big Ten freshman – male or female – to win Player of the Year honors and earned honorable-mention Associated Press All-American. She ranked second in the NCAA in freshman scoring (17.6 ppg) and third in rebounds (9.9 rpg), recording 13 double-doubles in 2007-08. Lavender set OSU rookie records for field goals made (232) and rebounds (306) in a season and her 17.6 points per game are No. 2 on the freshman charts.

Of the Buckeyes' six NCAA Tournament appearances during Jeter's time there, Ohio State advanced past the first round on four occasions, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2005. OSU received a six seed or better in five of her six trips to the NCAA Tournament, including a No. 1 seed in the 2005 tourney.

Between coaching at Kansas and accepting her post at Kentucky, Jeter moved to Texas and began working in the private sector. During her break from coaching, she also served as an analyst for ESPN's women's basketball coverage. Other off-court activities include serving as an ambassador for Women & Girls Against HIV/AIDS, a U.S. State Department Sports Ambassador and traveling internationally with NBA Global, promoting the game of basketball.

COACHES & STAFF

Jeter excelled on the professional hardwood after being selected as the No. 6 overall pick in the 2002 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx. She spent seven seasons in the professional ranks – retiring in 2008 – earning WNBA All-Rookie team honors in 2002 and helping her team reach the playoffs on three occasions. She netted 1,404 points, secured 1,166 rebounds, handed out 221 assists and added 183 steals in her professional career.

As a student-athlete at the University of Connecticut, Jeter won a pair of national titles and was a two-time All-American for the Huskies. Her 2000 and 2002 NCAA Championship teams are both members of the Huskies of Honor program, which is used by the University of Connecticut's basketball programs in lieu of a traditional hall of fame. She was The Sporting News National Freshman of the Year, 1999 BIG EAST Rookie of the Year and 1999 ECAC Rookie of the Year. Her sophomore season included being named the Most Outstanding Performer of the 2000 BIG EAST Tournament and the 2000 NCAA Championship. As a junior, she became the 19th player in UConn history to eclipse 1,000 points, and her senior season was capped off by another NCAA Championship and an undefeated 35-0 record. She received Associated Press All-America honorable mention honors and was a Naismith Player of the Year candidate during the 2001-02 season.

She completed her collegiate career with averages of 10.6 points and 5.8 rebounds per game. She owns the NCAA record in field goal percentage at 70.3 percent (560-for-797) and ended her career ranked No. 14 on UConn's all-time scoring list with 1,402 points.

A Dean's List student, she served as the president of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee while earning a bachelor's degree in interpersonal communications from the University of Connecticut.

After being heavily recruited by almost every major college basketball program in the country, she chose to play at Connecticut, where she and her classmates (Asjha Jones, Swin Cash and Sue Bird) were tabbed by Sports Illustrated the "best recruiting class of 1998."

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Jeter was the No. 1-ranked player in the nation coming out of Chaminade-Julienne High School. A prep standout, she scored 2,015 points in her career and was the consensus High School Player of the Year in 1998. She was a two-time Ohio Player of the Year (1997, 1998) and earned Ohio Miss Basketball and WBCA All-America honors as a senior in 1998. She helped the Eagles to the first appearance in the OHSAA Division I Final Four, where CJHS finished runner-up to USA Today National Champion Pickerington Central.

The former Tamika Williams is married to former NBA player Richard Jeter. The couple resides in State College with their son R.J. (3).

"Coaching under a dynamic leader, like Coquese Washington, allows me to experience personal fulfillment daily by challenging myself and those around me to be great everyday. Coquese gives us a platform to change lives in our community, impact young people's lives and work for an elite academic and athletic institution."

GEOFF LANIER

Assistant Coach • First Season
B.S. in Physical Education • Southern Connecticut State '92
M.A. in Psychology • Washington College '94

Veteran college coach Geoff Lanier enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Penn State women's basketball program in the 2018-19 campaign.

Along with coaching the wings, the Derby, Connecticut native will also assist in the day-to-day operation of the program, including opponent scouting, game preparation, recruiting, and serving as defensive strategist.

Landing on campus with 24 year of coaching experience, Lanier has made stops in the American Athletic Conference, Atlantic Coast Conference and Mid-American Conference, along with other coaching experience early in his career.

Lanier spent the last two seasons at Cincinnati, where he coached the programs posts, tutored a pair of conference "of the year" winners and helped the Bearcats to the 2018 WNIT. The 2017-18 campaign featured the second-straight season that the coaching veteran was able to guide a pupil to a conference specialty award, as Ilmar'l Thomas took home the American Athletic Conference's (AAC) Freshman of the Year award and was a unanimous AAC All-Freshman Team selection.

In total, Thomas was named league Freshman of the Week an American-best five times in 2017-18, averaging 9.7 points and a team-high-tying 6.0 rebounds per game.

In 2016-17, Lanier helped Shanice Johnson earn a spot on the All-American Athletic Conference third team and garnered unanimous AAC Newcomer of the Year distinction after averaging a team-high 15.2 points and 9.7 rebounds per game. Johnson scored in double-figures in 23 games and boasted 13 double-doubles.

Lanier arrived on the UC campus after spending four seasons as an assistant at Kent State. Lanier served as the recruiting coordinator for the Golden Flashes and his impact was felt immediately, as his efforts on the recruiting trail yielded 16 signees over his first 18 months. His crop of signees finished as a top-three class in the MAC for the 2014 cycle. His tenure at Kent State saw the development of four all-conference selections.

During his first season in Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts, he helped Boston College to its best finish in ACC history, a fifth-place showing in 2008-09, and the next season was a part of an Eagles squad that won two games at the ACC Tournament for the first time in program history. His tenure at BC (2009-12) included two postseason berths, including a run to the 2009 WNIT semifinals.

On the recruiting trail, he helped the Eagles reel in the 11th-ranked recruiting class in the country in 2010 and helped cultivate the talents of 2011 WNBA top-15 draft pick center Carolyn Swords. Of Boston College's nine all-time All-ACC selections, Lanier tutored five those, helping Swords (three times) and Stephanie Murphy (twice) earn All-ACC honors. Swords earned first-team All-ACC on two occasions while working with Lanier, the only two first-team All-ACC honors in BC history.

Lanier's career also included stops at Ohio University (2007-08) and the University of Akron (2004-06) as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. With the Bobcats, Lanier helped OU a 20-win season in 2007-08, which is one of only five 20-win seasons in the program's history.

COACHES & STAFF

Ohio U. advanced to its first MAC Championship game in 22 years in 2007-08, posting a 20-13 overall mark.

As the head coach at North Dakota College of Science from 1999-2003, Lanier also held the role of Director of Athletics at the school during the 2001-02 academic year. While at the junior college, he was named Region XIII Coach of the Year three times and led his team to the National Junior College Athletics Association (NJCAA) Region XIII Championships during three of his last four seasons.

As the top assistant at the University of Chicago from 1997-98, Lanier headed recruiting, organized team travel and was also the assistant facilities coordinator. He began his extensive coaching career as an assistant at Washington College in Maryland from 1995-96.

Lanier earned a bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Southern Connecticut State University and owns a master's degree in Psychology from Washington College.

He and his wife, Kim, have one daughter, Madison (19). Madison is a sophomore at the University of West Florida, where she is a member of the Argonauts softball program.

"Geoff has made a strong impact on our program in the short time he has been with us. His experience as a coach and his tireless work ethic has made his transition to Lady Lion basketball quite smooth. Geoff's energy and passion for the game, especially on the defensive end of the floor, is sure to have a positive effect on our program."

- COQUESE WASHINGTON

"Working under Coach Washington as part of the Lady Lion Basketball program is an opportunity that is both exciting and humbling. Penn State women's basketball is considered to be one of the most storied programs in college women's basketball. I am excited to work alongside such a tremendous staff, help the program maintain its high standards, and help Lady Lion Basketball reach even higher levels of success."

B.S. in Health Education/Kinesiology • Penn State '96
M.Ed. in Educational Counseling • Penn State '99

A Penn State letterman himself, Brad Pantall enters his 13th year as the performance enhancement coach for the Lady Lion program.

Pantall is in his 19th year overall as a member of the performance enhancement department at Penn State, joining the department in February of 1998 as a graduate assistant for two years.

During his time at his alma mater, he has worked with every Nittany Lion varsity athletic program. He has also tutored many professional athletes, including pupils that played for the NFL's Washington Redskins and Cincinnati Bengals, and a number of WNBA prospects.

Pantall played four years for head coach Joe Paterno and the Penn State football program and was a member of the 1995 Rose Bowl championship team. He earned three varsity letters and started in 36 consecutive games as the long snapper. Pantall snapped for two of Penn State's all-time leading scorers in Craig Fayak and Brett Conway.

He graduated from Penn State in 1996 with his bachelor's degree in health education/kinesiology. In 1999, he completed his masters of education in educational counseling.

A native of State College, Pantall and his wife, Sarah, reside in State College with their son, Scott (10), and daughter, Sadie (7).

COACHES & STAFF

MIRIAM POWELL

Director of Community Outreach • Third Season
B.A. in Geography • Gustavus Adolphus College '95
Post-Baccalaureate in Social Studies Education • Minnesota '97

For five seasons, Miriam Powell was a major part of Penn State's efforts in the fight against breast cancer as the executive director of Pennsylvania Pink Zone. Now, for her third season, Powell heads the Lady Lions' efforts in the community as the program's director of community outreach.

Powell's focus is on creating powerful and impactful relationships for the Lady Lion program within the University and surrounding communities, through service and volunteerism.

In her first season with the program, Powell helped expand the Lady Lions impact in the community, introducing a streamlined way for the student-athletes, coaches and staff to get involved.

Since joining the program January of 2016, Powell's efforts have helped the Lady Lions complete over 600 hours of community service, which works out to more than 40 hours of community service per student-athlete.

Service opportunities have included various elementary school assemblies and reading incentive program, assisting with the Backpack Program within the Bellefonte Area School District, volunteering with Housing Transitions and Toys for Tots. Collecting and delivering toys to area hospitals through the Jared Box Project and the development of the Lady Lion LeadHERship Academy.

Throughout her career, Powell has served her local communities either as a professional or volunteer.

During her five years as the Executive Director of Pennsylvania Pink Zone, Powell helped Pink Zone at Penn State earn a pair of Kay Yow Cancer Fund Division I Awards, given to the Division I program that raises the most funds for breast cancer research and education. She helped Lady Lion basketball set event records for monies raised ($310,000; 2014) and survivor attendance (698; 2014).

Her volunteer work in the State College/University Park community have been numerous, as well. She serves as a mentor with the Women's Leadership Initiative and serves on the board of directors for House of Care.

From 1998-2008, Powell made her living in the classroom as a teacher, holding posts at four different schools: Holy Trinity (Minn.) High School, Vision Quest Alternative Education Program, The Milton Hershey (Pa.) School and Mechanicsburg (Pa.) High School.

In 1995, she finished her Bachelor of Arts degree in geography at Gustavus Adolphus College in Saint Peter, Minnesota and in 1997 earned her Post-Baccalaureate Teaching Licensure in Social Studies Education from the University of Minnesota.

Powell and her husband, Jim, reside in Port Matilda with their two sons, Michael (11) and Joseph (9).

SEAN SULLIVAN

Director of Scouting & Digital Technology • Second Season
B.A. in Sport Recreation Management • Iowa '15

Sean Sullivan enters his second season on staff and eighth year in the women's basketball realm. He joined the Penn State staff after spending six years working with the Iowa women's basketball program.

Beginning as a manager with the Hawkeyes women's program, he assisted with specialty statistics and contributed to the on-court efforts for four seasons before moving into an undergraduate video assistant role. As a video assistant, Sullivan helped his alma mater break down opponent's game footage and assist in scouting report preparation.

Sullivan spent two seasons as the video coordinator for the Iowa women's program, while also supporting efforts with recruiting, student staff oversight, summer camp preparation and planning selected team events. He is also well versed in SportsTec/SportsCode analytical software, along with a vast knowledge of editing and distribution software that will enable the team to utilize the most up-to-date scouting and game preparation software.

Upon earning his bachelor's degree in sport recreation management with an emphasis in coaching from the University of Iowa, Sullivan spent the summer after graduation as a video coordinator with USA Basketball. His stint with the organization took him to Toronto for the Pan Am Games, where he helped the USA women's squad claim a silver medal.

JEANINE WASIELEWSKI

Strategic Specialist • Second Season
B.S. in Computer Science • Northwestern '91
B.A. in Business Administration • Denver '04

returned to the hardwood in a variety of roles in prep basketball from 2005-12, and then transitioned into collegiate basketball as an assistant coach at Metropolitan State University at Denver during the 2012-13 season.

Following one season at MSU Denver, Wasielewski was hired at Loyola University Chicago, where she spent three seasons, including two as the head assistant. During her time with the Ramblers, she was charged with offensive strategies, opponent scouting, monitoring academics, organizing recruiting efforts and coaching the guards. During her final season at Loyola, Wasielewski tutored first-team All-Missouri Valley Conference guard Taylor Johnson and was a part of one of the top scoring offenses in the conference.

1991 Sideline - Rene Portland

1994-95

Penn State claimed a share of the Big Ten regular season crown for second-consecutive season. The Lady Lions went undefeated at home for the third time with a 15-0 effort at Rec Hall. A 10-game winning streak highlighted the season, including a key victory over No. 12 Virginia, 90-77.

1995-96

On Jan. 3, Penn State shocked No. 1 Virginia, 73-71, which propelled the Lady Lions into the top spot in the AP Poll. The Lady Lions were the first-ever team from the Northeast to stake claim to the No. 1 slot in the poll and they went on to finish the season ranked No. 1. The Lady Lions earned the Atlantic 10 regular season title with a 17-1 mark in conference play and claimed the A-10 tournament title. The season included a school-record 18-game winning streak. Susan Robinson was named Atlantic 10 Player of the Year and Helen Holloway was named Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year.

1996-97

A streak of seven-straight 20-win seasons was snapped, as the Lady Lions posted a 15-13 overall mark. Angie Potthoff capped her career with an honorable mention selection to the WBCA All-America squad and her third-straight appearance on the All-Big Ten first team.

1997-98

The Lady Lions made their 15th postseason appearance, their first Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT). Penn State took home the inaugural WNIT title with a 59-56 victory at Baylor. Penn State advanced to the Big Ten Tournament final for the third time in four years, but came up short with a loss to Purdue.

1998-99

The Lady Lions returned to the upper echelon of the Big Ten with a 12-4 mark in conference play to finish second in the regular season. The Blue & White earned its 15th NCAA Tournament appearance with a 22-8 overall record. PSU went 4-3 against ranked opponents and earned the No. 18 spot in the final AP Poll.

1999-00

Penn State earned its first Final Four berth with a dominating win over No. 1 seed Louisiana Tech, 86-65. The Lady Lions won their third Big Ten title with a 15-1 record. Helen Darling claimed Big Ten Player of the Year honors and was a first-team Kodak/WBCA All-American. Rene Portland was named National Coach of the Year by the Women's Basketball Journal. The Lady Lions finished No. 6 in the final AP poll.

2000-01

Penn State made its 17th NCAA Tournament appearance, as freshman standout Kelly Mazzante became the first rookie to lead the Big Ten in scoring en route to the Big Ten and National Freshman of the Year awards. The Lady Lions earned the No. 21 spot in the final AP Poll.

2001-02

Kelly Mazzante earned first-team Kodak/WBCA All-America honors after breaking several Big Ten and PSU records. Mazzante led the nation in scoring and broke the Big Ten single-season scoring mark with 872 points. She also broke the Penn State single-game scoring record on Dec. 28 with 49 points vs. Minnesota. Rene Portland earned her 500th win at PSU on Feb. 3 over Ohio State. PSU tied for No. 24 with Florida in the final AP poll.

2002-03

Penn State garnered the Big Ten regular-season title with a 13-3 B1G ledger. The Lady Lions made their 19th NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen. Rene Portland became the seventh coach in NCAA Division I women's basketball history to record 600 wins. Kelly Mazzante became the first two-time Kodak/WBCA All-America first team choice in school history, also claiming first-team AP All-America accolades. She became the fastest player in PSU and Big Ten history to reach 2,000 points. Tanisha Wright claimed Penn State's first Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year award. PSU came in at No. 15 in the final AP poll.

2003-04

Penn State won its second-consecutive Big Ten regular season championship and fifth overall with a 15-1 mark. The Lady Lions advanced to the Elite Eight for the fourth time in their 20th NCAA Tournament appearance. Kelly Mazzante became the all-time leading scorer in the Big Ten (male or female), a mark that now ranks No. 3, finishing her career with 2,919 points. Mazzante was selected to the Kodak/WBCA All-America first team for the third time in her career, a feat that only 16 players had accomplished to that point. Tanisha Wright became the first player in conference history to win back-to-back Defensive Player of the Year honors. Head coach Rene Portland was named WBCA Coach of the Year for the second time in her career. The Lady Lions finished No. 5 in the final AP poll.

Pat Meiser

RECORDS

2004-05

In Rene Portland's 25th season, the Lady Lions were perfect at home (12-0) for the second time in three seasons. Tanisha Wright earned her third-consecutive Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year award, while leading the league in scoring (19.6 ppg). Penn State made its 21st NCAA Tournament appearance. The Lady Lions stunned second-ranked North Carolina during the regular season. The final AP poll tabbed the Blue & White No. 22.

2005-06

Penn State's streak of non-losing seasons came to an end with a 13-16 record. Adrienne Squire shot 96.3 percent from the free throw line, which set an NCAA single-season record.

2006-07

Rene Portland picked up her 600th Penn State win over Michigan on Jan. 14, becoming just the ninth coach in Division I history to have 600 victories at one institution. Amanda Brown broke the school's single-season rebounding record with 317 caroms.

2007-08

The Coquese Washington era began with three consecutive wins, including a victory over No. 20 Pittsburgh, to take home the WBCA Classic title. The Lady Lions became the 10th program in NCAA Division I history to have 750 wins with a 69-57 victory at Michigan State on Jan. 5. The Lady Lions also topped No. 10 Duke for the first time in school history with a last-second layup by Janessa Wolff.

2008-09

Brianne O'Rourke completed a stellar career as part of the "Point Guard U" tradition. She was the sixth player in school history with 1,000 points and 500 assists. Tyra Grant finished second in the Big Ten in scoring and earned first team All-Big Ten honors. She also became the 14th junior in school history to reach the 1,000 point mark.

2009-10

The Lady Lions posted the first winning season in the Coquese Washington era with 17 wins and a WNIT berth. Tyra Grant joined an elite group, becoming the fourth player in school history with 2,000 points, finishing with 2,044 career tallies. Grant claimed first-team All-Big Ten honors for the second time in her career en route to being drafted by the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury. Alex Bentley garnered third-team All-B1G accolades and was a unanimous Big Ten All-Freshman team selection.

2010-11

Penn State returned to the national stage with a 25-win season and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Lions finished second in the Big Ten (11-5) and were the runner-up at the Big Ten Tournament. Head coach Coquese Washington led the Lady Lions to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2003-04. It was the 22nd NCAA Tournament appearance for Penn State. In addition, the Lady Lions became the 13th team in Division I history to reach 800 wins with an 82-75 win over Iowa on Feb. 6. Freshman guard Maggie Lucas paced the Penn State attack from deep with a school record and then-Big Ten record 112 3-pointers. Behind Lucas' 42.6 percent 3-point shooting percentage, the Lady Lions led NCAA Division I in 3-point field goal percentage for the first time in school history. Lucas was tabbed Big Ten Freshman of the Year and Sixth Player of the Year for her efforts. Alex Bentley became the 11th different Lady Lion to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors.

Brianne O'Rourke

The Lady Lions claimed their second-straight Big Ten regular season title with a 14-2 mark and finished the year 26-6 overall. Penn State was a perfect 14-0 at the Bryce Jordan, marking the program's first undefeated home campaign since 2004-05. Maggie Lucas continued to impress, averaging 20.1 points per game en route to Big Ten Player of the Year honors and All-America accolades from the WBCA, USBWA and Associated Press. She became the second player in school history (Kelly Mazzante) to have back-to-back seasons with 600 or more points. Alex Bentley closed out a stellar collegiate career by winning the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award and earning her third consecutive All-Big Ten first team selection and All-America honors from the WBCA and AP. Bentley became just the fourth player in Big Ten history to accumulate 1,500 points, 500 assists and 300 steals. Nikki Greene capped an outstanding career with third-team All-Big Ten accolades and is the only player in Penn State history to record 1,000 points, 900 rebounds and 200 blocks. Bentley (13th; Atlanta) and Greene (26th; Phoenix) were both selected in the WNBA Draft. Penn State finished No. 8 in the season-ending AP poll.

2011-12

The Lady Lions climbed to the top of the Big Ten standings at 13-3 and claimed their sixth Big Ten regular season championship and first since 2003-04 and finished with a 26-7 overall record. Led by All-Americans Alex Bentley and Maggie Lucas, Penn State earned its second-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 2004. Bentley earned her second-straight first-team All-Big Ten bid and her first career All-Big Ten Defensive Team honor leading the Big Ten in league play with 49 steals. Lucas earned first-team All-Big Ten after finishing third in the conference in scoring at 19.5 points per game clip and was just the fourth different Lady Lion to score more than 600 points in a season. Penn State finished No. 11 in the final AP poll.

2012-13

The Lady Lions claimed their second-straight Big Ten regular season title with a 14-2 mark and finished the year 26-6 overall. Penn State was a perfect 14-0 at the Bryce Jordan, marking the program's first undefeated home campaign since 2004-05. Maggie Lucas continued to impress, averaging 20.1 points per game en route to Big Ten Player of the Year honors and All-America accolades from the WBCA, USBWA and Associated Press. She became the second player in school history (Kelly Mazzante) to have back-to-back seasons with 600 or more points. Alex Bentley closed out a stellar collegiate career by winning the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award and earning her third consecutive All-Big Ten first team selection and All-America honors from the WBCA and AP. Bentley became just the fourth player in Big Ten history to accumulate 1,500 points, 500 assists and 300 steals. Nikki Greene capped an outstanding career with third-team All-Big Ten accolades and is the only player in Penn State history to record 1,000 points, 900 rebounds and 200 blocks. Bentley (13th; Atlanta) and Greene (26th; Phoenix) were both selected in the WNBA Draft. Penn State finished No. 8 in the season-ending AP poll.

2013-14

The Lady Lions took home their third-consecutive Big Ten regular season title after posting 13-3 record in the conference and a 24-8 overall mark. It marked the first time in program history that Penn State won three-straight conference regular season titles (Big Ten or Atlantic 10). The senior class closed out an illustrious career with a 101-31 record, which is the second-most wins by a class in program history. Headlining the list was Maggie Lucas, who earned her second-straight Big Ten Player of the Year honor from the media, averaging 21.0 points and 4.2 rebounds per game. She once again claimed All-America accolades from the WBCA, USBWA and Associated Press. Lucas finished her career with 2,510 points, which ranks second in program history behind Kelly Mazzante. Lucas was the 21st overall selection in the 2014 WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury. Ariel Edwards excelled in her senior season as she claimed first-team All-Big Ten honors for the first time in her career after accounting for 15.7 points per game. She joined the elite 1,000-point club in the NCAA Tournament first round win over Wichita State. Fellow senior Dara Taylor showed off her prowess on both ends of the court and became the second Lady Lion to earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors (Tanisha Wright; three times) after leading the conference in steals at a 2.7 per game clip. The final senior on the squad, Talia East, also garnered All-Big Ten honorable mention recognition. Penn State capped the season at No. 14 in the AP poll.

2014-15

Redshirt-freshman Lindsey Spann became just the fifth freshman since 1980-81 to lead the team in scoring average, joining Maggie Lucas (2010-11), Tyra Grant (2006-07), Kelly Mazzante (2000-01) and Susan Robinson (1988-89). Spann pace the squad with 384 tallies (13.2 ppg) and connected on 37 3-pointers, which sits No. 7 on the single-season rookie charts. Her scoring prowess helped her reach double-figure in scoring in each of her first eight career games, a feat not accomplished by Penn State's top two career scoring leaders, Mazzante and Lucas. Sierra Moore earned honorable-mention Big Ten honors from the media after averaging 12.1 points, 5.1 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 1.2 steals per game. As a team, Penn State placed a school-record seven student-athletes on the Academic All-Big Ten list.

2015-16

A young nucleus helped lead the Lady Lions to a 12-19 overall record and 6-12 mark in Big Ten play. Freshman guard Teniya Page became the third freshman in school history to lead the team in both scoring average (15.3) and assists (4.2). She was the only rookie nationally to average 15 points and four assists on the season. Page finished No. 4 on Penn State's rookie scoring charts (473) and No. 5 on the assists list (131). For her efforts, Page was a unanimous Big Ten All-Freshman selection and earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the conference coaches. Lindsey Spann continued to be a threat from long range, hitting 65 3-pointers to push her career total to 102 made triples. She became the 14th player in school history to eclipse the 100 3-pointers made mark. Spann and senior Brianna Banks each earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors. Peyton Whitted pulled down 256 rebounds to rank No. 21 on the all-time list and sit among the top rebounder's in the Big Ten at 8.3 rebound per game.

2016-17

A blend of youth and experience helped the Lady Lions to a 21-11 overall record and a 9-7 finish in Big Ten play, paving the way for an appearance in the WNIT. Penn State collected the 900th win in program history, making it the 16th program in NCAA Division I history to reach the mark. In her sophomore season, Teniya Page averaged in 19.9 points to rank No. 21 nationally and connected on a 44.1 percent of her shots from 3-point range to finish No. 9 nationally. Page poured in 618 points to become the ninth Lady Lion to reach the 600-point mark in a single season and in the process became just the fourth Lady Lion in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau as a sophomore. For her efforts, Page was a consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection and earned honorable-mention All-America honors from the WBCA. A pair of first-year players in Amari Carter and Jaida Travascio-Green emerged as major contributors for the Lady Lions, as Carter led the team in assists and Travascio-Green finished among the best all-time freshman 3-point shooters in Penn State history. Carter controlled the offense, leading the team in assists (134) and ranking No. 13 in the NCAA in assist-turnover ratio (2.73). With 46 made 3-pointers, Travascio-Green finished fourth all-time on the freshman charts. Seniors Kaliyah Mitchell and Peyton Whitted each joined the 600-rebound club, becoming the 22nd and 23rd members of the club, respectively.

RECORDS

A second-straight WNIT appearance highlighted a 16-16 campaign. The Blue & White finished 6-10 in Big Ten play, navigating a B1G schedule that featured six ranked teams. Junior Teniya Page earned her second-consecutive selection to the All-Big Ten first team (coaches) after leading the team with 18.4 points per game. Page was one of four Lady Lions to lead the team in the scoring column on the season, along with sophomore Amari Carter, freshman Kamarria McDaniel and sophomore Jaidea Travascio-Green. Carter picked up her first All-B1G honors with a selection to the second team by the conference coaches after averaging 14.2 points per game and a team-best 3.6 assists per game. The lone Lady Lion to start all 32 games, Carter also paced the Big Ten with 2.6 steals per game. Travascio-Green chipped in 11.2 points per game and connected on 71 3-pointers to push her into the top 5 on the single season charts at Penn State.

BREAKING IT DOWN

On Nov. 13, 2016, Penn State became just the 16th NCAA Division I women's basketball program to eclipse the 900-win mark.

Those wins have come as a member of two different conferences and as a non-affiliated program. The Lady Lions have called three different buildings home in their history and have defeated teams from 31 different conferences across multiple divisions.

BRYCE JORDAN CENTER

- The 15,261-seat Bryce Jordan Center rocks during the basketball season and throughout the year with concerts and events.
- The Lady Lions practice, eat and compete in the Bryce Jordan Center. From strength and conditioning to video work to game days, the building is a place where every member of the team can feel productive and refreshed. The basketball offices, as well as those of the athletics department administration, are housed in the Jordan Center.
- Construction on the Bryce Jordan Center was completed in 1996 at a cost of $55 million.
- The Lady Lions christened their current home court on January 20, 1996 against SEC foe Georgia.
- Penn State lays claim to four undefeated home slates inside the Bryce Jordan Center and have seen a school-standard of 16 wins accomplished twice; 2002-03 (16-0) and 2016-17 (16-2).
- The Lady Lions are consistently ranked among the top 20 programs at the NCAA Division I level in attendance.
- The Lady Lions sold out the Bryce Jordan Center twice during the 2003-04 campaign against Michigan (Feb. 15) and Purdue (Feb. 29).
- The Lady Lions set a single-season attendance record in 2003-04 with 128,255 fans through the turnstiles.
- The Lady Lions had a 24-game winning streak at the Bryce Jordan Center from Feb. 14, 2002 until Dec. 14, 2003.
- During the 2008-09 campaign, the Lady Lions broke the school record with 16 consecutive non-conference wins at the Bryce Jordan Center. The streak dated back to the 2005-06 season.
- Penn State has hosted the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament First and Second Rounds on eight occasions at the Bryce Jordan Center.

RECORDS

HOME COURT HISTORY

White Building (1965-76)

- The Penn State women's basketball team played home games during its first 11 seasons in the North Gym of White Building.
- Standing-room-only crowds were not unusual in the early 1970s, especially when Penn State hosted intrastate rivals Edinboro, Cheyney or Pittsburgh.
- The Lady Lions posted a 30-13 overall record during their time in White Building, including a pair of unblemished seasons.
- Penn State was 2-0 in 1964-65 and 3-0 in 1969-70 to mark its two unbeaten seasons inside the building.

Rec Hall (1976-96)

- Recreation Building, affectionately called Rec Hall, opened to the public on January 5, 1929, when the Nittany Lions defeated Gettysburg, 37-34, in men's basketball action.
- Penn State's first women's basketball games at Rec Hall were in the 1976 AIAW Tournament. The Lady Lions made their Rec Hall debut on March 24, 1976, against eventual National Champion Delta State.
- In 1977, PSU played five games in Rec Hall, including tournament games against powerful Texas and Ohio State.
- The 1979-80 season marked the permanent move to Rec Hall for the Lady Lions.
- On March 12, 1982, Penn State hosted its first-ever NCAA Division I women's basketball postseason game. The Lady Lions defeated Clemson, despite Lady Tiger Barbara Kennedy's Rec Hall-record 43-point effort.
- The all-time Rec Hall attendance record of 7,264 came on Feb. 6, 1994, in the "Pack the Track" sellout of No. 1 Penn State versus No. 8 Iowa. The Lady Lions claimed the 63-61 victory that was televised nationally on ESPN2.
- The "Pack the Track" game was the first national broadcast of a women's basketball contest from Rec Hall.
- The Lady Lions were 203-34 (.857) in 20 seasons playing at Rec Hall.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Penn State's historic mission of teaching, research, and public service — launched under the most modest of circumstances more than 150 years ago — now reaches into virtually all parts of Pennsylvania. Consider, for example, that the University now has 24 campuses across the Commonwealth, putting a Penn State education within practical reach of nearly every Pennsylvanian. In fact, more than 70 percent of Penn State's undergraduates are Pennsylvania residents.

Penn State is Pennsylvania's largest nongovernmental employer and has employees and expenditures in every one of its 67 counties. The University generates a total economic impact across the Commonwealth that surpasses $17 billion annually.

Part of that impact is derived from Penn State's research program, which brought more than $534 million in federal funds to Pennsylvania last year, and an additional $91 million from private industry. In addition, as part of its Invent Penn State initiative, the University has funded 21 innovation hubs, designed to bolster entrepreneurship and economic development in communities surrounding its campuses across Pennsylvania.

Penn State's outreach and online programs — ranging from 4H to Cooperative Extension, from summer camps to public broadcasting — provide educational and service programs to more than a million Pennsylvania households annually.

The University's presence throughout Pennsylvania today contrasts sharply with its humble beginnings. Chartered as a college of scientific agriculture, the institution was located in rural Centre County after James Irvin, a partner in the Centre Furnace iron works (remains of which can be seen today along East College Avenue), offered to donate 200 acres of farmland for a campus.

Founding President Evan Pugh wanted the fledgling institution to embody a new approach to higher education that blended classical studies with subjects that had practical value. He joined similar visionaries in other states in convincing Congress to pass the Morrill Land-Grant Act in 1862. The act gave individual states tracts of federal land to sell; the proceeds supported colleges that agreed to include engineering, science and the liberal arts as well as agriculture in their course of studies. In 1863, the Pennsylvania legislature designated Penn State the Commonwealth's sole land-grant institution. The lawmakers in effect bestowed on the privately incorporated college a public character. In return for state support, the institution assumed obligations of teaching, research and service that are normally associated with publicly owned land-grant universities in other states.

By the 1890s Penn State was making its mark. It ranked among the nation's 10 largest undergraduate engineering schools, a distinction it still holds. It established one of the nation's first collegiate agricultural experiment stations, and Professor Whitman Jordan's pioneering research on using fertilizers for soil enrichment had global impact on crop yields.

Penn State in 1871 became one of the first land-grant schools in the Northeast to admit women, graduated its first international student in 1890, and its first African-American student in 1905.

In the early 1900s, President Edwin E. Sparks supported a number of efforts to "carry the college to the people," as he liked to say. Technical institutes were established in various locations statewide for engineering education, beginning with an evening school in Allentown in 1910. In 1912, Penn State helped create a system of county agents in agriculture and home economics. Today, the Penn State World Campus, with its "anywhere, anytime" learning through the Internet, builds on that outreach tradition.

But undergraduate education remained foremost. Enrollment surpassed 5,000 students by 1936, including those attending several undergraduate centers that were created for students who, in the depths of the Great Depression, could not afford to leave their hometowns to get a college education. The centers offered the first year of baccalaureate studies and were the predecessors of today's statewide system of campuses. Thanks to this innovative approach to higher education, Penn State in the 1930s became Pennsylvania's largest single source of baccalaureate degrees, a distinction it holds to this day.

Following World War II, Penn State underwent unprecedented expansion, first to meet the needs of returning military veterans and later to accommodate the Baby Boom generation. Total enrollment at all Penn State campuses climbed to 40,000 by 1970.

The University also emerged on the national scene as a research powerhouse in fields as diverse as dairy science, acoustics, psychology and diesel engineering. The expansion of research went hand in hand with a steady increase in the number of graduate students. The University awarded its first graduate degree — a master's degree in scientific agriculture — in 1862, and the Graduate School was established in 1922. But overall graduate enrollment remained modest until the 1950s, then swelled steadily. The Graduate School has awarded to date approximately 130,000 master's, doctoral and other advanced degrees.

The University Park campus is Penn State's administrative and research hub. In addition, there are 19 primarily undergraduate campuses; Penn State Health Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and the College of Medicine; the Pennsylvania College of Technology; Penn State Law; Dickinson Law; the Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies; and the Penn State World Campus.

To date, Penn State has awarded more than 840,000 degrees, hallmarks of an educational experience second to none in quality. In addition, Penn State alumni — including 348,000 in Pennsylvania alone — have job- and social-networking opportunities that no other college or university in the Commonwealth can surpass.

WORLD'S LARGEST ALUMNI NETWORK

From a quiet gathering of alumni in a vacant Old Main classroom in 1870 to a powerful network of more than 176,000 members worldwide, the Penn State Alumni Association has been keeping alumni connected to the University and to each other for more than a century. It is the largest dues-paying organization of its kind in the world. Alumni Association members live in every county in Pennsylvania, every state in the United States, and in numerous countries around the world.

The mission of the Alumni Association is to connect alumni to the University and to each other, to provide valued services to members, and to support the University's mission of teaching, research, and service.

Along with degree holding members, one out of every eight current Penn State students belongs to the Blue & White Society, the Alumni Association's student membership contingent.

Today, that mission is brought to life through events and programs such as; City Lights, pep rallies, Huddle with the Faculty, Alumni Reunion Weekend, Homecoming events, and so much more.

The mission is also embodied in the Alumni Association's commitment to recognize outstanding alumni and alumni volunteers through its award programs.

PENN STATE

PRESIDENT ERIC J. BARRON

Patrick Mansell

Eric J. Barron took the helm of Pennsylvania's flagship public university on May 12, 2014, arriving from Florida State University, where he had been president for four years. No stranger to Happy Valley, he had previously spent 20 years of his career at Penn State, serving on the faculty of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences and as dean of the college.

Dr. Barron has nearly 40 years of leadership experience in academic administration, education, research and public service, and a track record as a talented manager of fiscal policy within large and complex institutions. In recognition of his expertise and leadership in higher education, he was named chairman of the Commission on Innovation, Competitiveness and Economic Prosperity for the Association of Public Land-grant Universities (APLU) in fall 2017.

As leader of Penn State, Dr. Barron oversees a research enterprise of more than $863 million and more than 20 campus locations. His responsibilities also include oversight of two law schools, the internationally recognized online educational enterprise known as the Penn State World Campus, and a nearly $2 billion health enterprise, which includes the Penn State College of Medicine and the Penn State Health network, in Hershey, Pa. Penn State's current enrollment is approximately 99,000 students, and it boasts the world's largest dues-paying alumni association in the world.

During his tenure as president of Penn State, Dr. Barron has made access and affordability; student engagement; economic development; job creation and student career success; technology and diversity and demographics priorities. His Invent Penn State initiative aims at ramping up investment in economic development and student career success. By leveraging the size and broad research strengths of the University, Dr. Barron has made it a goal that Penn State will be a driver for job creation, entrepreneurship, and economic development, and will accelerate the transfer of new ideas into useful products and processes that encompass a broad range.

Since its inception, Invent Penn State has partnered with the University's campuses across the Commonwealth to open 21 innovation hubs available to the surrounding communities. Since opening, the hubs have accelerated more than 100 startups, supported nearly 3,000 faculty, staff, students and community entrepreneurs, and hosted more than 100 events and pitch competitions.

As part of his fiscal duties, Dr. Barron has pursued various cost-saving measures and increased revenue for Penn State in an effort to lower the University's cost structure while continuing to focus on academic excellence and fulfilling Penn State's land-grant mission.

Dr. Barron earned a bachelor of science degree in geology at Florida State in 1973 before moving on to the University of Miami, where he earned master's and doctoral degrees in oceanography. At Penn State, Dr. Barron served as dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences from 2002-06, and as founding director of the Earth System Science Center, one of the first major initiatives focused on the total study of Earth as a system. He also had a simultaneous appointment as director of the Earth and Mineral Sciences Environment Institute. In 1999, he was named Distinguished Professor of Geosciences at Penn State.

An accomplished scientist with a long background in atmospheric research, Dr. Barron served as director of the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR) and as dean of the Jackson School of Geosciences at the University of Texas at Austin. Early in his career he was a postdoctoral research fellow and scientist at the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder, Co.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS SANDY BARBOUR

Recognized as one of the nation's premier Athletic Directors, Sandy Barbour enters her fifth year as the dynamic leader of the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletic program. With student success as a steadfast focus, Barbour has helped the Nittany Lions continue to ascend as one of the nation's most successful athletic departments in comprehensive excellence.

Barbour began her passionate and effective leadership of the Penn State Athletics program in August, 2014. President Eric J. Barron named Barbour the Nittany Lions' ninth Director of Athletics after serving 10 years as Director of Athletics at the University of California.

During Barbour's initial four years, Penn State student-athletes have consistently raised the bar and broken school academic records. In the 2018 spring semester, Nittany Lion student-athletes delivered a record 3.15 grade-point average and tied the highest percentage (66 percent) and number of teams (26) earning at least a 3.0 GPA.

A school record 360 Nittany Lions earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2017-18 for posting at least a 3.0 GPA and 173 student-athletes earned their degrees during the 2017 calendar year.

Barbour has more than 35 years of varied experiences as a collegiate administrator and coach, with a demonstrated record of championships, academic success, innovation, facility modernization and revenue growth. She directs one of the nation's most comprehensive and successful athletic programs that boasts an NCAA Graduation Success Rate of 90 percent, with 31 sports and an Intercollegiate Athletics staff of more than 300, whose mantra is preparing students for a lifetime of impact.

STUDENT-ATHLETES ARE THE "WHY"

It didn't take long for Barbour to begin implementing her vision for Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics and creating conditions for success for the department's "Why" – the more than 800 Nittany Lion student-athletes.

Six months after arriving at Penn State, she announced a reorganization of ICA that introduced a more vertical structure to encourage communication and collaboration across functional units and sports. Four administrative divisions were formed: student-athlete performance, health and welfare; internal and external operation, administration and business and finance.

Midway through 2015, Penn State Athletics launched a wide-ranging strategic planning process and conducted a series of town hall meetings. Students, faculty and staff, alumni, donors and the public were presented with some of the initial findings of the project and had an opportunity to provide feedback. The project helped determine strategies and priorities for the formalized 2017-21 strategic plan.

One of the nation's most highly-respected athletic directors, Barbour also is overseeing a comprehensive facilities master plan that was announced in March 2017. Penn State partnered with Populous, one of the world's leading architecture and sport event planning firms, to collaborate on programming, developing and producing a comprehensive facilities master plan to provide a 20-year road map for addressing current and long-term needs for all of the Nittany Lions' facilities (competition, practice, performance enhancement and training).

Less than two months after the facilities master plan was unveiled in 2017, Penn State announced a $3.55 million gift from men's lacrosse letterman and graduate Ken Panzer and his business partner, Jordan Kaplan, to launch construction on a new lacrosse facility. The project will transform the Penn State Lacrosse Field to become one of the top lacrosse venues in the nation. Construction on Panzer Stadium is on schedule for completion prior to the 2018 fall semester.

AD OF THE YEAR RECIPIENT IN 2016-17 AND FINALIST IN 2018

Barbour's leadership was recognized with her selection for the prestigious National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Under Armour AD of the Year Award in 2016-17, having directed Penn State to nine conference championships and one NCAA title. She was among four Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Athletic Directors to be honored at the 2017 NACDA Convention, marking the second time she's received the NACDA honor.

In March 2018, she was named one of five finalists for Sports Business Journal's prestigious Athletic Director of the Year. Barbour, the recent chair of the Big Ten Athletic Directors, was recognized at the 11th Annual SBJ Sports Business Awards Gala in New York City in May, the second time she's been a finalist for SBJ's Athletic Director of the Year.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AMONG RECORD-SETTING ACHIEVEMENTS

Penn State student-athletes have consistently delivered record-setting academic performances during Barbour's tenure. In the 2018 spring semester, Nittany Lion students delivered a record 3.15 grade-point average and tied the highest percentage (66 percent) and number of teams (26) earning at least a 3.0 GPA.

In the 2017 fall semester, Nittany Lion students again shattered school marks, as 26 teams and 520 student-athletes, earned at least a 3.0 grade-point average. A record total of 253 Nittany Lion students posted at least a 3.5 GPA last fall to garner Dean's List honors (minimum 12 credits).

Starting with the 2014 fall semester, Barbour's first as Penn State AD, Penn State student-athletes have achieved the eight highest semesters all-time for the number of students earning at least a 3.0 GPA.

In November 2017, the NCAA released its annual national graduation rates study, which revealed that Penn State student-athletes earned a school record-tying Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 90 percent, which is an increase of two points from the 2015 NCAA report. Nine Nittany Lion teams earned a perfect 100 percent Graduation Success Rate, up from five squads in 2015.

A total of 267 Penn State student-athletes earned have earned their degrees since May, 2017, with 173 during the 2017 calendar year and 94 following the 2018 spring semester. A total of 15 Nittany Lions have earned CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades during Barbour's tenure, boosting Penn State's all-time total to 201, good for No. 4 nationally among Division I institutions. Five Nittany Lions were selected CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2016-17.

During the 2017-18 academic year, Nittany Lion students again shattered school records for Academic All-Big Ten honorees (3.0 GPA), with 360 recipients. Seasonal marks were set by student-athletes from the fall (117) and spring/at-large (166) sports and the spring/at-large total was a Penn State record for the sixth consecutive year.

FIVE NCAA TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS AND 23 CONFERENCE TITLES

During Barbour's four years of leading Penn State Athletics, the Nittany Lions have captured a total of five NCAA Championships in women's soccer, women's volleyball and wrestling and won 18 Big Ten titles and five EIVA crowns for a total of 23 conference championships.

The Nittany Lions won their third consecutive NCAA Wrestling Championship and captured three Big Ten crowns or tournament titles in 2017-18 in wrestling, women's soccer and women's volleyball. A total of 21 Penn State squads participated in their respective NCAA Championship or a bowl game (Fiesta Bowl Champions) in 2017-18 and Zain Retherford won the Hodge Trophy as the nation's top wrestler for the second consecutive year.

A total of 20 Penn student-athletes have won NCAA individual national championships since 2014-15, including a combined total of 13 the past two years from four different sports. In 2017-18, seven Nittany Lions were crowned NCAA individual champions in wrestling, men's track and field and men's gymnastics. A total of 11 Nittany Lions won Big Ten individual titles this past year.

Penn State was ranked No. 2 in the Learfield Directors' Cup in the final fall 2017 and winter 2018 standings and has earned a pair of Top 10 finishes (three in Top 15) in the final standings under Barbour's direction, including No. 8 in 2016-17. Penn State Athletics also was ranked No. 9 among the nation's 65 Autonomy Five institutions in 2017-18, according to Yahoo! Sports.

MORE THAN 6,000 HOURS OF COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

In addition to their academic and athletic achievements, student-athletes have helped support Penn State's comprehensive excellence by combining to spend more than 6,200 hours involved in community engagement in 2016-17. Nittany Lion students annually participate in community engagement with more than 40 organizations.

A former student-athlete and graduate of Wake Forest University, Barbour is a member of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee. In 2017, she was selected as one of the inaugural members of the United States Olympic Committee's (USOC) Collegiate Advisory Council. The CAC is charged with bridging the gap between high-contributing collegiate stakeholders and the Olympic Movement.

RECOGNIZED BY FORBES AMONG TOP EXECUTIVES IN SPORTS

Forbes has recognized Barbour twice in recent years among the top executives in sports. In April 2018, Barbour was selected No. 13 among the Most Powerful Women in Sports. She was among four executives listed who work primarily in intercollegiate athletics and was the highest ranked Athletic Director – No. 2 overall in college sports.

In December 2015, Forbes named Barbour one of the Top 25 Most Powerful People in College Sports, ranking among six Athletic Directors and two female administrators on the list. Forbes said that Barbour "has developed a reputation for being one of the most forward-thinking administrators in all of college sports."

PERSONAL PRIDE IN NEW MORGAN ACADEMIC CENTER

The first facility project completed under Barbour's direction is one she is particularly proud of – the conversion of the Greenberg Sports Complex to a new Morgan Academic Center. Advising, tutoring, computer labs, group study areas and meeting rooms for student-athletes previously were located in four separate locations on campus.

The 2016 completion of the MAC provided a central and expanded academic and student welfare hub for Penn State's 800 student-athletes and will assist in keeping academic services and the academic performance of Nittany Lion student-athletes at the forefront among the nation's premier Division I institutions.

Early in her tenure at Penn State, Barbour made a gift of $100,000 for the Morgan Academic Center project, with a portion of her donation used to create a One Button production studio where students can record a speech or presentation and review it prior to delivering in class.

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS LYNN HOLLERAN

A Pennsylvania native, Holleran joined Penn State in March of 2015 after serving 12 years at the University of Minnesota, including four years as the Director of the McNamara Academic Center for Student-Athletes.

During her four-plus years as director of the McNamara Academic Center, Holleran supervised an academic support operation that served approximately 750 student-athletes in 25 varsity programs. Under Holleran's direction, she helped improve Minnesota's Academic Progress Rates (APR) to their highest numbers in University history, with the overall 2012-13 APR score ranking No. 4 among all Football Bowl Subdivision institutions. Her efforts also resulted in the highest cumulative grade-point averages and graduation rates for the Golden Gophers' programs.

Holleran began her 12-year affiliation with the University of Minnesota in 2003, serving as the Deputy Chief of Staff in the Office of the President. In her role, she assisted the University president, vice president and chief of staff with strategic planning and supervision of several areas, including intercollegiate athletics, as well as the day-to-day President's Office operations and budget. Holleran also was a member of a cross-functional team that managed the logistics of planning and launch of the new TCF Bank Stadium on campus.

Prior to Minnesota, Holleran was a Senior Associate Athletic Director and the Senior Woman Administrator at Boston College from 1993-2003. She was the primary administrator for 12 programs and had oversight of compliance, policy development/analysis and Title IX adherence for all 31 programs among her responsibilities.

Holleran began her career in intercollegiate athletics at Northwestern University, serving as the Assistant Director of Academic & Student Services from 1986-93, while attending graduate school.

Born in Pittsburgh, Holleran earned a bachelor's degree in economics and business management at Beloit College, where she was a standout basketball, soccer and softball student-athlete. She was inducted into Beloit's Hall of Honor in 1997. Holleran earned a master's degree in management/organizational behavior and marketing from Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management.

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR/SWA CHARMELLE GREEN

Charmelle Green was named Senior Associate Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator at Penn State in March 2015. Green is responsible for the management, supervision, and evaluation of women's volleyball, men's and women's cross country and track & field, softball, and ability athletics.

In her role, she is also responsible for the management, supervision, and evaluation of Intercollegiate Athletics Sport Performance unit, which includes medical services, athletic training, strength & condition, sports nutrition, and sports psychology. She also manages, supervises and evaluates the Intercollegiate Athletics Student Welfare and Development unit, which develops and implements life skills programs, and resources for student-athletes.

Green has served on numerous department and university-wide committees, including the search committee for former Penn State football coach Bill O'Brien, the University search committee for Vice President and General Counsel, the University Policy Review Committee, the University Employee Leadership Steering Committee, the University's Employee Education Initiative Team, the University Response Coordination Committee, and Faculty Senate's Intercollegiate Athletics Committee. Green also serves as the University's Deputy Title IX Coordinator.

Green came to Happy Valley in 2011 as Associate Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator. Prior to joining Penn State, Green served as the head of the Office of Student-Athlete Welfare & Development and the sport administrator for women's swimming & diving at the University of Notre Dame. During Green's six years in Notre Dame's athletic administration, she oversaw the student development program, with the mission of providing a balanced Notre Dame experience for student-athletes by focusing on five key areas: academic excellence, athletic success, career preparation, community involvement and personal development.

Prior to joining athletic administration at Notre Dame, Green was an assistant softball coach from 2001-05. During her tenure on the coaching staff, the Fighting Irish were selected for the NCAA Tournament four times and won four Big East Conference regular season championships.

An All-American softball player at the University of Utah, Green spent time in Salt Lake City after graduation working as a recreation program coordinator from 1995-98. She was also an integral part of developing an advisory board for the development of an inner-city school for the arts.

A Western Athletic Conference standout, Green was a two-time softball All-American, earning both first team (1990) and second team (1991) accolades during her career at Utah. Green was named WAC Player of the Year as a senior. She was inducted into the University of Utah's Hall of Fame in 2001.

A 1991 Utah graduate with a degree in mass communications/public relations, Green earned a masters degree in secondary education in 2003 from IU South Bend.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Penn State women's basketball team proudly boasts eight position endowed scholarships.

Helen "Choo" Chelius was a Penn State fan for more than 60 years. Her late husband Carl ('26) and son Carl ('73) both earned degrees from Penn State. In 1999, she made an incredible commitment to the program by endowing the first women's basketball position at Penn State. Chelius established the scholarship for the point guard position.

Adding to the Lady Lion tradition in 2000, John ('56) and Joanne Spangler endowed the Lady Lions' forward position, while Carl and Joyce Chelius endowed the shooting guard spot on the Lady Lion roster.

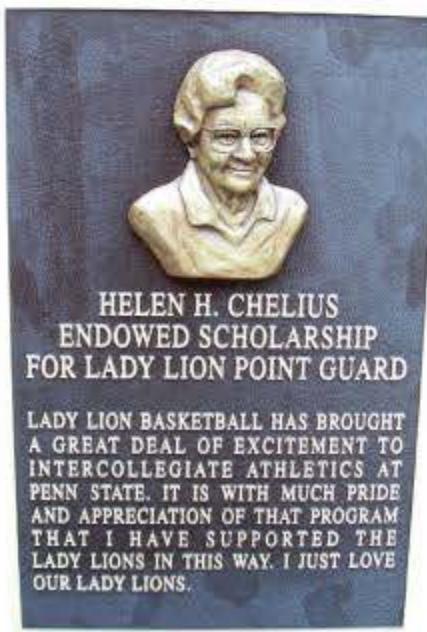

John and Ann Curley added to the number of endowed Lady Lion scholarships with the advent of their scholarship for a Lady Lion forward, while Nancy Dreibelbis endowed a scholarship for a Lady Lion point guard.

John and Jeanette McWhirter provided the most recent addition to the Lady Lion scholarship stable with the creation of the Maggie Lucas Scholarship for Lady Lion Shooting Guard in the spring of 2013.

Also, adding to the legacy of the Lady Lion program are James and Carol Kauffman, along with the Sokolov family. The Kauffman's endowed a scholarship for the power forward position, while the Sokolov's scholarship supports a Lady Lion small forward.

To be eligible for scholarships, students must have outstanding academic records and be proficient in women's basketball. Scholarships are awarded for one academic year with the possibility of renewal in subsequent years.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's standard of competing at the highest level in athletics also endures as an important component of the Big Ten experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its students not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.

Every Big Ten Academic Alliance institution ranks among the top 70 universities in the nation according to the 2017 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including four in the top 25.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,700 Academic All-Americans, including 34 honorees during the 2017-18 academic year.

Big Ten Academic Alliance schools annually conduct $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Big Ten schools have won at least seven national championships in seven of the last 10 academic years and at least three in each of the last 25 years.

In the last five full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have claimed 31 team national championships in 15 different sports.

Over the last 12 full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have won 85 team national titles in 23 different sports.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

- Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.
- Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding seniors who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.
- Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.
- Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.
- Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.
- Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.
- Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.
- Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate members in men's and women's lacrosse in 2013 and 2015, respectively, and added Notre Dame as a sport affiliate member in men's ice hockey in 2017.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and nearly 580,000 students.

Each year more than 11 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference has led the nation in attendance for men's basketball, ice hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's current media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS and FOX, more than 1,600 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally and globally on an annual basis.

BTN is in almost 60 million homes across the United States and Canada. BTN2Go is BTN's digital extension, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BTN Plus within BTN2Go streams hundreds of additional events each season.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

The Big Ten will administer over $200 million in direct financial support to more than 9,800 students competing in intercollegiate athletics for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on more than 350 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse the last five years.

The Big Ten leads the nation in total students competing in intercollegiate athletics and participation opportunities, and sponsors more official sports than all conferences except the Ivy League.

Almost 1,400 Big Ten competitors have participated in the Olympics, winning more than 600 medals, including nearly 300 gold. In the 2016 and 2018 Olympic Games, more than 200 representatives from Big Ten institutions including current or former students and coaches were members of Olympic teams. Big Ten Olympians collected more than 50 medals in the most recent games in Rio and PyeongChang.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

For more than 25 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.

Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Basketball Tournaments, the conference has held numerous community initiatives, partnered with the College Football Playoff Foundation and other events such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service and Youth Football Clinics. In addition, the Big Ten has hosted a downtown 5K, collaborated with a local breast cancer awareness group and provided unique event experiences for military veterans.
